The Experiment Of Life Science And Religion:

The Experiment of Life Trinity College (Toronto, Ont.), 1983 Science and Religion J.W. Fennema, Paul Iain, 2012-12-06

The world is increasingly becoming one. It is at the same time one endangered ecosystem and one thriving market place with material and spiritual goods on competitive display. And the good and evil things of life cannot easily be sorted out. The world is becoming one also in the sense that it is better understood today than it was in earlier times that the material good and the spiritual good though seemingly belonging to different realms of fact defined by their respective modes of existence together constitute effectively one and the same reality. The modern world of science, technology, computerized administration and power that calls upon humankind to struggle for a just participatory and sustainable society and to strive for a society of the future that will be the world over both long lived and worth living. The Second European Conference on Science and Religion held on 10-13th March 1988 on the campus of the Universiteit Twente Enschede The Netherlands was meant to be a modest market place, a forum where standpoints and opinions could be presented and criticized. It was meant to offer an opportunity to meet and to make acquaintances in the expectation that the exchange of thoughts would lead to new conceptual horizons that would challenge what so far had been considered as hard fact or what until now had been looked upon as a distinctive feature of a well established view either of the kingdom of the sciences or of the realm of religion.

Costly Communion, 2019-01-28. Costly Communion Ecumenical Initiative and Sacramental Strife in the Anglican Communion seeks to engage with Anglicanism's theological responses to the onset of the twilight of empire and to explore the diversity of Anglican sacramental and ecumenical controversies during the twentieth century. From sacramental initiation and the doctrine of Eucharistic sacrifice to church order and the historic episcopate, Costly Communion offers insights into Anglo-Catholic and Evangelical attempts to resolve the divisions provoked by the impact of the Oxford Movement from the 1830s. In its engagement with sub-Saharan African contextualization of the Anglican, moreover, Costly Communion analyses the unanticipated threat that Anglican diversity now poses for the unity of the Anglican Communion. Contributors are Jeff Boldt, Jeremy Bonner, Hugh Bowron, Mark Chapman, Colin Buchanan, Ken Farrimond, Joseph Galgalo, Benjamin Guyer, Charlotte Methuen, Thomas Mhuriro, Esther Mombo, Zablon Nthamburi, Kevin Ward.

Archbishop William Temple Stephen Spencer, 2022-07-31. Leadership is a growing preoccupation of the contemporary church, but for some of the most inspiring examples of good leadership we need to go back, not forwards. Archbishop William Temple is widely regarded as one of the most influential church leaders of the twentieth century. In this book, Stephen Spencer unpacks Archbishop Temple's life and legacy and the ways in which his leadership transformed society in remarkable ways. From education to politics and from spiritual direction to leading the church through national crisis, this book draws on Temple's biography to offer a unique and profound portrait of the kind of servant leadership the church needs today.
