The Fabric of Architecture Marvin J. Malecha, 1982 Architectures of Colonialism Vera Egbers, Christa Kamleithner, Özge Sezer, Alexandra Skedzuhn-Safir, 2024-06-04 The question of what heritage is and how we deal with it is not a neutral one Recent events such as the Black Lives Matter movement and the toppling of monuments have made evident how much the colonial past is inscribed in our built environment at the same time colonialism continues to affect memorialization and historiography Hence those involved in architectural history are challenged to re consider their positionality Whose heritage are colonial sites Which possibly silenced memories are attached to them How are archives and material evidence reassessed to bring forward the stories of marginalized subjects Following the call for decolonization this volume explores historical methodologies and shows the entanglement of narratives at architectural sites bringing together archaeology architectural history and heritage studies A contribution to the current debate on decolonization and memorialization Interdisciplinary perspectives on architecture and heritage International range of authors Fabric Structures in Architecture J Llorens, 2015-03-28 Fabric Structures in Architecture covers the varying ways textiles and their properties are used in building construction with particular focus given to tensile structures The text begins with the fundamental principles of textiles including the origins of fabric architecture then progressing to a discussion of the modern textiles of today It covers relevant textile materials and their properties including coatings and membranes In addition a range of design considerations are discussed with detailed information on installation and failure modes A series of case studies from around the world accompany the discussion illustrating the applications of textiles in architecture Offers key coverage of the fundamental principles from the origins of fabric architecture to modern textile Provides analysis of relevant textile materials and their properties including coatings and membranes Contains expert insights in to the applications of textiles in architecture presenting a series of relevant case studies from around the world Networks, Markets & People Francesco Calabrò, Livia Madureira, Francesco Carlo Morabito, María José Piñeira Mantiñán, 2024-12-01 This book aims to address the issue of the effects that the contemporary environmental technological social and economic global challenges produce on settlement systems communities institutions and enterprises It presents a multi disciplinary scientific debate on the new frontiers of strategic and spatial planning decision support tools and ecological design within the urban rural areas networks and the metropolitan cities of the Mediterranean basin The book focuses on five topics Cultural Heritage as driver of development for territories and tourism destinations Ecosystems people nature cohesion and urban rural relationships Decision Support Systems for urban regeneration Policies and practices of cohesion and social innovation for inclusive cities Green buildings and sustainable solutions for ecological transition In addition the book hosts the papers of a special session intercluster promoted by Italian Society of Architectural Technology SITdA The book benefits all researchers practitioners and policymakers interested in the issue applied to metropolitan cities and marginal areas Architecture and Leadership

Mark Roberson, Alicia Crumpton, 2022-12-12 From cathedrals to cubicles people go to great lengths and expense to design their living and working environments They want their spaces to be places where they enjoy being reflecting who they are and what they care about The resultant environments in turn become loud albeit unvoiced leaders for people occupying those corresponding spaces The design and use of work and living spaces typifies and thematizes expectations for the group Essentially the architecture of rooms buildings and cities creates cultures by conveying explicit and implicit messages This is evident when people approach and walk into St Basil's Cathedral in Moscow the Forbidden City in Beijing the Sydney Opera House in Sydney Australia the Jewish Museum in Berlin or the Rothko Chapel in Houston to name some examples While leaders oftentimes lack the resources to have their spaces mirror the greatest architectural achievements of the world they are in a position to use the art and science of architecture at whatever scale is available to their advantage The creative and intentional use of space and place advances and promotes cherished values and enhances organizational effectiveness This book explores the essence of good architecture and establishes relevant connections for leaders and managers to strategically design and use the organizational workplace and space to support their mission and purpose and create aesthetically meaningful work environments It equips leaders to be culturally astute on what defines good architecture and to incorporate principles of beauty in their leadership practices accordingly and will be of interest to researchers academics professionals and students in the fields of leadership organizational studies and architecture theory and practice

Architecture in Nineteenth-Century Photographs Micheline Nilsen, 2017-07-05 Revealing that nineteenth century photography goes beyond the functional to reflect the aesthetic intellectual and cultural concerns of the time this study proposes that each photographic image of architecture be studied both as a primary visual document and an object of aesthetic inquiry This multi faceted approach drives Architecture in Nineteenth Century Photographs Essays on Reading a Collection Despite three decades of post colonial post structuralist and gender conscious criticism the study of architectural photography continues to privilege technical virtuosity This volume offers a thematic exploration of the material and a socio historical examination that allows consideration of questions that have not been addressed comprehensively before in a single publication Themes include exoticism and armchair tourism the absence of women from architectural photography the role of photographs as commodities vernacular architecture and the picturesque and historic preservation urban renewal and nationalism Micheline Nilsen analyzes photographs from France and England the two countries where photography was invented and from around the world representing a corpus of over 10 000 photographs from the Janos Scholz Collection of Nineteenth Century Photographs of the Snite Museum of Art at the University of Notre Dame

The Architecture of Home in Cairo Mohamed Gamal Abdelmonem, 2016-03-03 The hawari of Cairo narrow non straight alleyways are the basic urban units that have formed the medieval city since its foundation back in 969 AD Until early in the 20th they made up the primary urban divisions of the city and were residential in nature Contemporary hawari by contrast are increasingly dominated by commercial and industrial activity This medieval urban maze of extremely short broken zigzag streets and dead ends are defensible territories powerful institutions and important social systems While the hawari have been studied as an exemplar for urban structure of medieval Islamic urbanism and as individual building typologies this book is the first to examine in detail the socio spatial practice of the architecture of home in the city It investigates how people live communicate and relate to each other within their houses or shared spaces of the alleys and in doing so to uncover several new socio spatial dimensions and meanings in this architectural form In an attempt to re establish the link between architecture past and present and to understand the changing social needs of communities this book uncovers the notion of home as central to understand architecture in such a city with long history as Cairo It firstly describes the historical development of the domestic spaces indoor and outdoor and provides an inclusive analysis of spaces of everyday activities in the hawari of old Cairo It then broadens its analysis to other parts of the city highlighting different customs and representations of home in the city at large Cairo in the context of this book is represented as the most sophisticated urban centre in the Middle East with different and sometimes contrasting approaches to the architecture of home as a practice and spatial system In order to analyse the complexity and interconnectedness of the components and elements of the hawari as a collective home it layers its narratives of architectural and social developments as a domestic environment over the past two hundred years and in doing so explores the in depth social meaning and performance of spaces both private and public

Analysing Architecture Simon Unwin, 2020-12-30 Now in its fifth edition Analysing Architecture has become internationally established as the best introduction to architecture Aimed primarily at those studying architecture it offers a clear and accessible insight into the workings of this rich and fascinating subject With copious illustrations from his own notebooks the author dissects examples from around the world and all periods of history to explain the underlying strategies in architectural design and show how drawing may be used as a medium for analysis In this new edition Analysing Architecture has been revised and expanded Notably the chapter on How Analysis Can Help Design has been redeveloped to clearly explain this crucially important aspect of study to a beginner readership Four new chapters have been added to the section dealing with Themes in Spatial Organisation on Axis Grid Datum Place and Hidden Material from the Case Studies in previous editions has been redistributed amongst earlier chapters The Introduction has been completely rewritten and the format of the whole book has been adjusted to allow for the inclusion of more and better illustrative examples Works of architecture are instruments for managing orchestrating modifying our relationship with the world around us They frame just about everything we do Architecture is complex subtle frustrating but ultimately extremely rewarding It can be a difficult discipline to get to grips with nothing in school quite prepares anyone for the particular demands of an architecture course But this book will help People-Centered Architecture: Design Practice Education Milton Shinberg, 2025-06-25 Shinberg has done something truly impressive He has created a practical framework for architectural thinking and design grounded in

Architecture, Liberty and Civic Order Carroll

William Westfall, 2016-03-09 This book brings to light central topics that are neglected in current histories and theories of architecture and urbanism These include the role of imitation in earlier centuries and its potential role in present practice the necessary relationship between architecture urbanism and the rural districts and their counterpart in the civil order that builds and uses what is built The narrative traces two models for the practice of architecture One follows the ancient model in which the architect renders his service to serve the interests of others it survives and is dominant in modernism The other first formulated in the fifteenth century by Leon Battista Alberti has the architect use his talent in coordination with others to contribute to the common good of a republican civil order that seeks to protect its own liberty and that of its citizens Palladio practiced this way and so did Thomas Jefferson when he founded a uniquely American architecture the counterpart to the nation's founding This narrative gives particular emphasis to the contrasting developments in architecture on the opposite sides of the English Channel The book presents the value for clients and architects today and in the future of drawing on history and tradition It stresses the importance indeed the urgency of restoring traditional practices so that we can build just beautiful and sustainable cities and rural districts that will once again assist citizens in living not only abundantly but also well as they pursue their happiness

Under Construction: Logics of Urbanism in the Gulf Region Steffen Wippel, Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, 2016-02-17 Interdisciplinary in approach this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region its aesthetics language and performative characteristics Bringing together a range of studies by artists curators and scholars it demonstrates how Dubai appeared at least until the financial crisis to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities In contrast cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily under construction and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman ultra luxury tourism projects were started only recently While the construction of artificial islands theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention much less is known about the region s widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports free zones inter island causeways and metro lines This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands In doing so they exhibit similar yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present questionably distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map Each country aims to grab attention with regard to the world wide flow of goods and capital and thus provide its own citizens with a socially acceptable trajectory for the future By doing that the countries in the Gulf are articulating a new semiotic and paradigm of urban development For the first time this volume maps these trends in their relation to architecture and infrastructure in particular by treating them as semiotics in their own right It suggests that recent developments in this region of the world not only represent
