TLS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1978 The School Librarian School Library Association,1977 List of Novels and Tales in the English Language Los Angeles Public Library,1900 The Green Flag and Other Stories of War and Sport Arthur Conan Doyle,1900 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1911 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1893 Cutting a Figure Richard J. Powell,2008 Examining portraits of black people over the past two centuries Cutting a Figure argues that these images should be viewed as a distinct category of portraiture that differs significantly from depictions of people with other racial and ethnic backgrounds The difference Richard Powell contends lies in the social capital that stems directly from the black subject s power to subvert dominant racist representations by evincing such traits as self composure self adornment and self imagining Powell forcefully supports this argument with evidence drawn from a survey of nineteenth century portraits in depth case studies of the postwar fashion model Donyale Luna and the contemporary portraitist Barkley L Hendricks and insightful analyses of images created since the late 1970s Along the way he discusses major artists such as Fr d ric Bazille John Singer Sargent James Van Der Zee and David Hammons alongside such overlooked producers of black visual culture as the Tonka and Nike corporations Combining previously unpublished images with scrupulous archival research Cutting a Figure illuminates the ideological nature of the genre and the centrality of race and cultural identity in understanding modern and contemporary portraiture Penshurst Castle in the Time of Sir Philip Sidney Emma Marshall,1894 The Publishers Weekly ,1887 The Uselessness of Art Peter Lamarque,2019-10-10 Oscar Wilde s famous quip All art is quite useless might not be as outrageous or demonstrably false as is often supposed No one denies that much art begins life with practical aims in mind religious moral political propagandistic or the aggrandising of its subjects But those works that survive the test of time will move into contexts where for new audiences any initial instrumental values recede and the works come to be valued for their own sake The book explores this idea and its ramifications The glorious Palaeolithic paintings on the walls of the Chauvet Cave present a stark example In spite of total ignorance of their original purposes we irresistibly describe the paintings as works of art and value them as such Here we are at the very limits of what is meant by art and aesthetic appreciation Are we misusing these terms in such an application The question goes to the heart of the scope and ambition of aesthetics Must aesthetics in its pursuit of art and beauty inevitably be culture bound Or can it transcend cultural differences and speak meaningfully of universal values timelessly human not merely historically relative The case of literature or film puts further pressure on the idea of art valued for its own sake Characters in works of literature and film or finely honed emotions in poetry often give pleasure precisely because they resonate with our own lives and seem in the great works to say something profound about human existence Is not this kind of insight why we value such works Yet the conclusion is not quite as clear cut as it might seem and the idea of valuing something for its own sake never quite goes away
