Murray, 2000-03-14 Bringing together a range of critics working on the hispanic and francophone as well as anglophone post colonial regions this book aims to dislocate some of the commonly accepted cultural linguistic and geographical boundaries that have previously informed post colonial studies Collected essays include cross cultural comparisons from areas as diverse as Africa Ireland and Latin America analysis of specific texts as sites of border conflict and revisions of post colonial theoretical frameworks A timely questioning of the categories of a critical field at the point when it is becoming increasingly comparative this volume seeks to suggest more dynamic ways of working in post colonial cultural studies
