Sipping Nectar with the Gods Dwayne Pagnotto, 2002-05 Connie Harry Pearson, 2017-08-17 Winner of the MCC Book of the Year Award His father was a first class cricketer his grandfather was a slave Born in rural Trinidad in 1901 Learie Constantine was the most dynamic all round cricketer of his age 1928 1939 when he played Test cricket for the West Indies and club cricket for Nelson Few who saw Constantine in action would ever forget the experience As well as the cricketing genius that led to Constantine being described as the most original cricketer of his time Connie illuminates the world that he grew up in a place where the memories of slavery were still fresh and where a peculiar almost obsessive devotion to Englishness created a society that was often more British than Britain itself Harry Pearson looks too at the society Constantine came to in England which he would embrace as much as it embraced him the narrow working class world of the industrial North during a time of grave economic depression Connie reveals how a flamboyant showman from the West Indies actually dovetailed rather well in a place where local music hall stars such as George Formby Frank Randle and Gracie Fields were fêted as heroes and how Lancashire League cricket fitted into this world of popular entertainment Connie tells an uplifting story about sport and prejudice genius and human decency and the unlikely cultural exchange between two very different places the tropical island of Trinidad and the cloth manufacturing towns of northern England which shared the common language of cricket Corkscrewed Robert V. Camuto, 2008-11-01 Robert V Camuto's interest in wine turned into a passion when he moved to France and began digging into local soils and cellars Corkscrewed recounts Camuto's journey through France's myriad regions and how the journey brought about a profound change in everything he believed about wine The world of great wines was once dominated by great Bordeaux châteaux As those châteaux were bought up by moguls and international corporations the heart of French winemaking moved into the realm of small producers whose wines reflect the stunning diversity of regional environment soil and culture terroir In this book we follow Camuto across France as he works harvesting grapes in Alsace learns about wine and bombs in Corsica and eats and drinks his way through the world's greatest bacchanalia in Burgundy Along the route he discovers a new generation of winemakers who have rejected chemicals additives and technologically altered wines His book charts an odyssey into this new world of French wine a world of biodynamic winegrowing herbal treatments lunar cycles and grape varieties long ago dismissed as difficult A celebration of the diversity that makes French wine more than a mere commodity Camuto's work is a delightful look beyond the supermarket to the various flavors offered by the true vintners of France Select Works of Porphyry Porphyry, 1823
