Sunrise Robert Crooke, 2007 Sunrise is a tale of illusion, loss and renewal in a tragic age. Set in Manhattan and in the fashionable beach towns of Long Island's East End, it follows the interwoven lives of three friends from the late 1960s to the present, exploring the confluence of art, commerce, politics and celebrity. With its perfectly rendered physical setting, Sunrise draws readers into the reality of place and the universality of myth in a daring Modernist style. Stephen Dahl, the narrator of Sunrise, is a troubled child of the 60s, an expatriate American author living in Paris, an alcoholic who has stopped drinking but failed to recover his spiritual equilibrium. Watching the horrors of September 11th from his Paris apartment, he is struck by renewed patriotism which vanishes quickly as America plans to invade Iraq. But he is called home in the Spring of 2003 by the death of his former best friend and by the chance to see his former lover, the widow of his old friend. Thus begins Stephen's journey to a past that reveals complex layers of moral and spiritual responsibility to his country, his countrymen and himself. Stephen confronts an uncertain future by accepting the moral limits of despair and the power of compassion.

Stewards of the Grasslands Dana Reiter, 2023-10-16 This book offers a series of interviews with Canadian ranchers that highlight the innovative and effective ways that they manage vast swaths of grassland for two complementary goals: commercial viability and sustainable habitats. The book's author is an academic who grew up among ranchers in the grasslands of Canada, and the expertise and viewpoints she has distilled from these interviews complement the academic literature in accessible and surprising ways. As these productive landscapes face increasingly perilous threats such as development, economic pressures and extreme weather events, it is the ranchers who live on and manage these native grasslands who are passionate about conserving them. This book is about them, their experiences and the realities of their lives, their view of the world, sharing their knowledge to assist younger ranchers and their contributions to Canada's species at risk, conservation goals, food security and economy. The book offers practical advice for ranchers but also reveals the depth of attachment and dedication these ranchers have for the grasslands. They are conservationists at heart as they not only understand that their livelihood is dependent on the health of the ecosystem they manage but they also have a deep connection to the land nurtured oftentimes for many generations Academics and ranchers have much to learn here but the book most of which is the words of the ranchers themselves is written to give the general public an understanding of this vocation and its role in the conservation of our last remaining grasslands Prep School Children Vyvyen

Brendon,2009-10-13 Since the days when nine year old Tom Brown set off by stage coach to be prepared for entry to Rugby middle class British boys have been sent away to prep school Here children aged seven to thirteen have been systematically groomed for public school for gentlemanly life for military service for colonial rule and for worldly or in the case of Harry Potter wizardly success In a compelling and sometimes shocking account Vyvyen Brendon dwells not on the adult purposes behind a peculiarly British institution but on the lives of the children More than two hundred youngsters appear in these pages describing their schooldays through memoirs letters diaries poetry fiction and interviews The impressions left happy or miserable comic or tragic were indelible The pupils responses were seldom expressed at the time for according to the ancient maxim children should be seen but not heard This book gives them a voice In doing so it reveals a neglected area in the history of childhood and casts a sharp beam of light on the national character Our Friend John Burroughs Clara
