Lifelong Action Learning for Community Development Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, Richard Teare, 2013-10-30 This book explains and demonstrates how indigenous communities built on traditional knowledge culture and language can be extended and strengthened by 1 the new integrated methodology of Lifelong Action Learning LAL and 2 new approaches to learning and development as exemplified by the system of GULL Global University for Lifelong Learning The GULL system harnesses the potential of people to bring about positive change together characterized by self reliance financial independence and cascading learning and benefits to others It is a self directed and self sustainable process of learning and growth The case studies in this book provide evidence that over time economically very poor communities can achieve transformations that bring with them many benefits personally professionally and for the community This book manages to accomplish an almost impossible goal to be both deeply inspirational and highly practical all at the same time Professor Mary Brydon Miller USA I was sold on this book from the foreword the need to rethink how we think about and do education is emerging as a hot topic among academics Professor Lesley Wood South Africa All development practitioners and students should study this book carefully as should aid bureaucrats and aid donors Dr Chad Perry Australia In this book Ortrun Zuber

Skerritt and Richard Teare invite us to re think re evaluate and re create our views of learning Associate Professor Doris Santos Colombia In this new book the authors present challenging and original models for encouraging community and social development work Drawing on a Lifelong Action Learning LAL approach they challenge Western dominated approaches to learning encouraging the development of local solutions for local needs Dr Pip Bruce Ferguson New Zealand By bringing education to the people rather than people to education they create the possibility for real personal organizational and community learning on the ground in developing countries Dr Ron Passfield Australia The genius of this book is its simplicity It provides a sound approach to addressing the holes in our mainstream approaches to education training development and in living together in communities through providing a new understanding of lifelong action learning and how to achieve it through proactively cultivating and passing on local knowledge Dr Frank Thompson Africa I believe this book has the potential to transform the century old teaching and learning paradigm that is failing many countries to one that is futures oriented and transformational in nature This is a book that all educators need to read and to consider within their own learning context Dr Margaret Fletcher Australia This book will be useful to international community developers educators and researchers especially if they are looking for alternative ways of successfully improving living conditions for disadvantaged and subsistence communities Associate Professor Wendy Rowe Canada The Routledge International Handbook of Research on Teaching Thinking Rupert Wegerif, Li Li, James C. Kaufman, 2015-05-22 The Routledge International Handbook of Research on Teaching Thinking is a comprehensive guide to research on teaching thinking Teaching thinking is key to growing a more successful economy is needed for increased democratic engagement and is vital for the well being of individuals faced with the complexity of a globalised world However there are questions about what we mean by thinking how best to teach it and how best to assess it and it is these questions that this handbook explores and addresses Containing surveys and summaries of international cutting edge research on every aspect of teaching thinking in a range of contexts the handbook is thorough in its delivery examining many different approaches and methods to help readers understand what teaching thinking is and how we can best take this movement forward Key topics include Theoretical perspectives on teaching thinking Approaches for teaching thinking Developing creative thinking Developing critical thinking and metacognition The assessment of thinking Teaching thinking in the context of STEM Collaborative thinking and new technology Neuro educational research on teaching thinking This book is an essential guide for policy makers teachers and researchers who are interested in teaching thinking Resources in Education ,1997 Action Leadership Ortrun Zuber-Skerritt, 2011-04-15 Action leadership is a creative innovative collaborative and self developed way to lead It eschews the hierarchical structure usually associated with leadership and is based instead on the democratic values of freedom equality inclusion and self realization It take responsibility for not control over people through networking and orchestrating human energy towards a holistic outcome that benefits the common interest Action leaders are passionate people who abide by the motto that Learning does not mean to fill a barrel but rather to ignite a flame in others And in this time of rapid economic political technological social and ecological changes action leadership and action leaders are precisely what s needed to improve how people and organizations engage constructively to address the myriad complex issues challenging society at all levels Action Leadership Towards a Participatory Paradigm explains and illustrates how action leadership can be developed through participatory action learning and action research PALAR It addresses real life issues by people who choose to work collaboratively towards shared goals while developing their learning insights knowledge people skills and personal relationships through involvement in a PALAR project The book provides a conceptual framework for action leadership and for the integrative practical theory of PALAR and examples of applications in higher education management education for organization development and community development Readers are encouraged to adopt adapt and further develop the evolving concepts of action leadership and PALAR in a participatory paradigm of learning research and development

Competence-based Vocational and Professional Education Martin Mulder, 2016-09-08 This book presents a comprehensive overview of extant literature on competence based vocational and professional education since the introduction of the competence concept in the 1950s To structure the field the book distinguishes between three approaches to defining competence based on 1 functional behaviourism 2 integrated occupationalism and 3 situated professionalism It also distinguishes between two ways of operationalizing competence 1 behaviour oriented generic and 2 task oriented specific competence Lastly it identifies three kinds of competencies related to 1 specific activities 2 known jobs and 3 the unknown future Competence for the unknown future must receive more attention as our world is rapidly evolving and there are many global challenges which call for innovation and a profound transformation of policies and practices The book presents a range of different approaches to competence based education and demonstrates that competencebased education is a worldwide innovation which is institutionalized in various ways It presents the major theories and policies specific components of educational systems such as recognition accreditation modelling and assessment and developments in discipline oriented and transversal competence domains The book concludes by synthesizing the different perspectives with the intention to contribute to further improving vocational and professional education policy and practice Joao Santos Deputy Head of Unit C5 Vocational Training and Adult Education Directorate General for Employment Social Affairs and Inclusion European Commission This comprehensive work on competence based education led by Martin Mulder provides an excellent and timely contribution to the current debate on a New Skills Agenda for Europe and the challenge of bridging the employment and education and training worlds closer together This book will influence our work aimed at improving the relevance of vocational education to support initial and continuing vocational education and training policy and practice aimed at strengthening the key competencies for the 21st century Prof Dr Reinhold Weiss Deputy President and Head of the Research Federal Institute for Vocational Education and Training BIBB Bonn Germany This book illustrates that the idea and concept of competence is not only a buzzword in educational debates but key to innovative pedagogical thinking as well as educational practice Prof Dr Johanna Lasonen College of Education University of South Florida Tampa USA Competence based Vocational and Professional Education is one of the most important multi disciplinary book in education and training This path breaking book offers a timely rich and global perspective on the field The book is a good resource for practitioners policymakers and researchers Teaching in the Standards-based Classroom, 2001 Virtually every national standards document every state framework and every local set of standards calls for fundamental changes in what and how teachers teach The challenge for teachers is to implement the vision for mathematics and science classrooms called for in the standards This issue describes that vision and suggests ways to use the standards mandated in your school to improve your practice to help you teach in your standards based classroom Work-Based Learning Joseph A. Raelin, 2008-02-13 Work based learning is Joe Raelin's unique way of incorporating a number of action strategies such as action learning action science and communities of practice into a comprehensive framework to help people learn collectively with others In this thoroughly updated and revised edition he demonstrates how to engage our reflective powers to challenge those taken for granted assumptions that unwittingly hold us back from questioning standard ways of operating A well known popular author Joe is an avid student of the many traditions that support work based learning so he presents an inclusive model that has wide appeal across disciplines and occupations He provides readers with the most recent updates in the field such as his coverage of virtual team learning portfolios multisource feedback critical and global action learning and changes in educational policy Whether you're an organizational or college educator this book will help you make learning accessible to everyone and even contagious within your organization
