

“Give us this day our daily bread.” Here the daily bread does not mean simply bread and nothing else; but it means the necessities of life generally. What we require we ask God for, and are allowed to ask God to give to us.

Give Us This Day Christopher Levan, 2007-01-01 Bread speaks to us of our daily reliance upon a Maker writes Christopher Levan Perhaps more than any other food it brings us close to our roots as fellow creatures of God's creation Bread is an apt metaphor for the spiritual journey Give Us This Day offers meditations for every day in Lent inviting us to connect faith our daily bread and the world in which we live along with recipes that range from Shrove Tuesday No Fret Pancakes to Easter Challah bread Each of the 40 meditations begins with a scripture verse and a prayer Give Us This Day Tom Kingery, 2023-02-08 Give Us This Day is more than a reflective exposition of The Lord's Prayer it is about prayer in general and the ways prayer manifests itself in our relationships By emphasizing the us in the prayer Tom Kingery nurtures the relevance of what Jesus has given in teaching us this prayer When Jesus teaches us to pray Our Father it serves as a reminder that we are all brothers and sisters Everyone who can pray this prayer is a child of God E Stanley Jones has said that prayer is not so much an act as an attitude The author likes to say that prayer is the poetry of the soul It becomes an outward expression of an inward state of being Prayer as an attitude involves a threefold relationship with yourself with God and with the world But more than anything else prayer is what makes us as human beings the image and likeness of God When we are praying we are spiritual beings trying to connect to the spirit of God Lessons on the Church Catechism.
