The Red Years Bandi, 2019-08-15 Though North Korea holds the attention of the world it is still rare for us to hear North Korean voices beyond those few who have escaped Known only by his pen name the poet and author Bandi stands as one of the most distinctive and original dissident writers to emerge from the country and his work is all the more striking for the fact that he continues to reside in North Korea writing in secret with his work smuggled out of the country by supporters and relatives The Red Years represents the first collection of Bandi s poetry to be made available in English As he did in his first work The Accusation Bandi here gives us a rare glimpse into everyday life and survival in North Korea Singularly poignant and evocative The Red Years stands as a testament to the power of the human spirit to endure and resist even the most repressive of regimes

Old Farm Jerry Apps,2013-03-29

One of the Midwest s best loved authors tells the story of his land from the last great glacier that dug out its valleys and formed its hills to his own family's 40 year relationship with the beloved farm they call Roshara In this quiet but epic tale Apps describes the Native Americans who lived on the land for hundreds of years tapping the maple trees and fishing the streams and lakes as well as the first white settlers who tilled its sandy acres plowing the native grasses that grew taller than their teams of oxen For all their work the farm proved tough to tame Hardscrabble farming methods and hard luck often brought failure From land that provided only a marginal living for its early owners this place we call Roshara has provided much for my family and me writes Apps He and his wife and their children have cared for the farm not so much to make a living as to enhance their lives Apps chronicles the family's efforts always earnest if sometimes ill advised to restore an old granary into living space develop a productive vegetable garden manage the woodlots reestablish a prairie and enjoy nature's sounds and silences Breathtakingly beautiful color photographs by Apps's son Steve a professional photographer highlight the ever changing beauty of the land in every season and hint at the spiritual gifts that are the true bounty this family reaps from Roshara Central to Apps work is his belief that the land is something to cherish and revere Like Aldo Leopold before him Apps sounds an inspirational call to readers to preserve wild and rural places leaving them in better condition than we found them for future generations
