Governing Sound

Jocelyne Guilbault, 2007-09-15

Written in two parts, part 1 explores the development of Calypso from its emergence in the pre colonial period to the post colonial period. In part 2 the focus is on the new Carnival musical practices of soca, rapso, chutney soca and ragga soca and the ways in which they contributed to the redefinition of Trinidadian cultural politics in the neoliberal era. The new rationalities, contingencies, desires and musical experiments that animated the new musics and enabled them to gradually displace calypso from its centrality as national expression is examined.
