Practical step by step instructions explain how to prepare herbal medicines in the unique Ayurvedic style oils, creams, ghees, jams, etc. Photos are provided of both the freshly growing herbs and dried samples. Authored by an experienced Medical Herbalist, Ayurvedic practitioner and passionate herb grower, well versed in the classical Ayurvedic texts and contemporary writings.

The Handbook of Alternative and Complementary Medicine Stephen Fulder, 1996. The Handbook of Complementary and Alternative Medicine is acknowledged to be the most authoritative and complete guide to complementary medicine available. The result of extensive research, it provides a detailed picture of the status of alternative and complementary medicine in the UK and internationally. The Handbook examines the developing social position of complementary medicine including legal, political, scientific, educational and demographic aspects and considers why people choose complementary therapies, how many do so, and what happens during and after their treatment. For each therapy, there is a concise review of the theoretical, practical and research aspects, written in collaboration with a leading practitioner and providing an authoritative introduction to the field. The book also includes an invaluable resource guide covering all the significant colleges, professional bodies and societies in this area of medicine and detailing over 250 organizations, as well as an extensive glossary and bibliography. This third edition has been extensively rewritten, expanded and updated and reflects the dramatic increase in complementary medicine over the past years. In the UK alone, there are more complementary practitioners than general practitioners now. It charts the growing level of interest among medical professionals and the general public. The coverage of research has been extended; new sections have been added dealing with the UK National Health Service and education. The Handbook is an invaluable reference source for all medical practitioners, including nurses, researchers and administrators, as well as members of the general public who want to make an informed choice about complementary medicine.

Handbook of Metallonutraceuticals Yashwant Vishnupant Pathak, Jayant N. Lokhande, 2014-04-28. The nutritional and medicinal value of metals such as zinc, calcium and iron has been known in traditional medicine for a long time. Other metals such as silver and gold may also have therapeutic and health benefits. Ancient medicines have long incorporated their use in the treatment of diseases and they have also more recently been explored for treatment in allopathic medicine, birthing the concept of metallonutraceuticals. The challenge of using metals in the human body is to find forms that are safe and effective. Handbook of Metallonutraceuticals presents basic concepts related to the nutritional and therapeutic use of metals product.

development strategies and some ideas ready to be applied for condition specific metallonutraceuticals The book begins with an overview of the nutraceuticals field and the need for metallonutraceuticals It considers the roles of various metals in metabolism reviews the ethnopharmacology and ethnomedicine of metals and covers the characterization and possible properties of metallonutraceuticals It also examines bioavailability and drug interactions and therapeutic applications of nanometals including use as imaging agents in cancer diagnosis and treatment as antibacterials and antivirals in ocular disease and in neurodegenerative diseases The book explores the use of metals in traditional Chinese medicine potential applications for metalloenzymes the use of nanosilver in nutraceuticals and the potential of gold nanoparticles as a drug delivery system In addition it addresses intellectual property rights and regulatory considerations regarding metallonutraceuticals Using an interdisciplinary approach this user friendly text provides a knowledge base and inspiration for new research in this exciting field Handbook of Ayurveda Bhagwan Dash,Acharya Manfred M.
