changing story for hearing impaired children and their families Rivers Walk tells the story of a vibrant strong willed hearing impaired bunny who discovers just how much fun wearing hearing aids can be Wonderfully illustrated and written Rivers Walk captures the imagination and encourages hearing impaired children to embrace and wear their hearing aids This story was inspired by a very real and very special little girl named Rivers a student at The Memphis Oral School for the Deaf MOSD Located in the Memphis community for more than fifty years and serving families from all over the Mid South The Memphis Oral School for the Deaf works to empower deaf children to listen learn and talk At MOSD no sign language is used Instead it employs speech and language therapies and audiological services in conjunction with preschool classes to help profoundly deaf and hard of hearing children ages birth to six years old These specialized techniques help the children develop the necessary listening and spoken language skills to become a part of rather than apart from a world of sound Find out more at www.MOSDKids.org ABOUT THE AUTHOR Dr Nathalie Johnson received her undergraduate degree in Speech and Hearing Sciences from Indiana University her masters degree in Audiology from the University of Memphis and recently her doctorate in Audiology from the Arizona School of Health Sciences She has dedicated the last 15 years of her professional career to the children and families at The Memphis Oral School for the Deaf where she is head of the family training program entitled Sound Beginnings Dr Johnson shares the vision of The Memphis Oral School for the Deaf where every day is an opportunity to give the gift of sound and to empower deaf children to listen learn and talk      The Needs of Hearing-impaired Children Ian P. McIntyre, 1976      King's Magic Ear Buds Shayla Maultsby, 2017-04-06 This story is to inspire and shine a light on hearing impaired children thru a positive story Showing it does not matter the cause or reason behind being hearing impaired or deaf We are all wonderfully made and amazingly gifted Hearing impaired children make great friends classmates and family members Just like anyone else in our universe that society deems different or with disabilities I hope this story stimulates your imagination and brings enjoyment to your mind as you enter the beginning of King s Story      Bessie Needs Hearing Aids Jenna Harmke,2020-05-13 Bessie Needs Hearing Aids is a children s book that will help children with hearing loss understand the process and that they are not alone Written and illustrated by a teenage girl who went through this process so it will resonate with children just learning of hearing issues or coping with wearing hearing aids The book received numerous accolades so it was decided to make it available to all in order to possibly help other children with hearing loss      The Secrets Hidden Beneath the Palm Tree Angeliki Stamatopoulou-Pedersen,2019-02-11 This early childhood book is written from a mother s point of view with the purpose of helping children with hearing loss and their families at the critical mainstream stage There is an emphasis through the different components in the book for broader understanding of hearing loss such as how classroom tactics and facilitation of communication at the educational level help When young children get exposed to differences in others they learn tolerance empathy and create new ways of learning For the educators they will have in their hands a tool to start conversations with their students about hearing loss
