Wragg,2019-07-09 Bringing together authors from a range of academic disciplines and research backgrounds united as standard bearers for the child s right to play and set against a backdrop evoking play s critical essence this book documents the rise and fall of an explosive period of political interest in play in the UK Has the withdrawal of so much state funding damaged the playwork profession forever Has the battle for recognition of the significance of play in child development been lost Why is children s happiness always so low on the agendas of our politicians The invaluable contributions in this book identify the lessons learned and the opportunities that may be available to those determined to maintain the struggle for a greater recognition of the importance of children s play in an era defined by the oppressive politics of austerity This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Play New York Magazine ,1992-04-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Games Black Girls Play Kyra D. Gaunt,2006-02-06 Illustrates how black musical styles are incorporated into the earliest games African American girls learn how in effect these games contain the DNA of black music Drawing on interviews recordings of handclapping games and cheers and her own observation and memories of gameplaying Gaunt argues that black girls games are connected to long traditions of African and African American musicmaking and that they teach vital musical and social lessons that are carried into adulthood from publisher information New York Magazine ,1991-09-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Little Emperors JoAnn Dionne,2008-02-11 Short listed for the 2009 City of Victoria Butler Book Prize Much has been made about how the New China has become an economic juggernaut in today s world while civil liberties and basic freedoms remain constricted We know where the aging leadership has taken and is taking China but what about the very young What are they like When JoAnn Dionne arrived in Guangzho she came prepared to live and teach elementary school in a Communist country She expected to see soldiers in the streets people in grey Mao suits and lineups to buy toilet paper Instead she found the world s oldest country throwing itself headlong into the future She found traffic jams and 24 7 constructions neon lights and smog shopping malls and modern high rises And then she met the people who would live in that future her students Along with crisp insights into Chinese culture as seen through the eyes of a North American Dionne provides a funny often poignant glimpse of a nation undergoing rapid transformation
