Bush and J.H. Smithson (and J.F. Buss). Emanuel Swedenborg,1902

Milton's Angels Joad Raymond,2010-02-25 Milton's Paradise Lost the most eloquent most intellectually daring most learned and most sublime poem in the English language is a poem about angels It is told by and of angels it relies upon their conflicts communications and miscommunications They are the creatures of Milton's narrative through which he sets the Fall of humankind against a cosmic background Milton's angels are real beings and the stories he tells about them rely on his understanding of what they were and how they acted While he was unique in the sublimity of his imaginative rendering of angels he was not alone in writing about them Several early modern English poets wrote epics that explore the actions of and grounds of knowledge about angels Angels were intimately linked to theories of representation and theology could be a creative force Natural philosophers and theologians too found it interesting or necessary to explore angel doctrine Angels did not disappear in Reformation theology though centuries of Catholic traditions were stripped away Protestants used them in inventive ways adapting tradition to new doctrines and to shifting perceptions of the world Angels continued to inhabit all kinds of writing and shape the experience and understanding of the world Milton's Angels The Early Modern Imagination explores the fate of angels in Reformation Britain and shows how and why Paradise Lost is a poem about angels that is both shockingly literal and sublimely imaginative The Teachings of Emanuel Swedenborg: Vol I Emanuel

Swedenborg,2016-10-20 In Heaven and Hell Swedenborg gives the reader a detailed description of the afterlife He deals with God heaven hell angels spirits and devils and he addresses the issues of who is in heaven and hell Are there any Jews Muslims and people of pre Christian times such as pagan Romans and Greeks in heaven He posits that the love of self or of the world drives one towards hell and love of God and fellow men towards heaven Here is the most influential and important book ever written on the subject In Divine Love and Wisdom Swedenborg uses reason and empirical facts to prove the existence of God and God's divine love He further posits that we are all an essential part of God's Divine plan and that without us God's plan could not come to fruition In Divine Providence Swedenborg explains why it is that we cannot always see God's hand in our chaotic world Why tragedy and war are allowed to happen and how these things relate to us If God were to remove all tragedies from our lives of what worth would free will be Heaven and Hell Emanuel
