Tallos De Lunamoon Shoots:

Tallos de luna Elba Rosario Sánchez,1992 Moon shoots Elba Rosario Sánchez,1992 Color of Privilege Aida

Hurtado,2005-08-18 This groundbreaking and important book explores how women of different ethnic racial groups conceive of feminism A da Hurtado advances the theory of relational privilege to explain those differing conceptions Previous theories about feminism have predominantly emphasized the lives and experiences of middle class white women A da Hurtado argues that the different responses to feminism by women of color are not so much the result of personality or cultural differences between white women and women of color but of their differing relationship to white men For Hurtado subordination and privilege must be conceived as relational in nature and gender subordination and political solidarity must be examined in the framework of culture and socioeconomic context Hurtado s analysis of gender oppression is written from an interdisciplinary multicultural standpoint and is enriched by selections from poems by Sandra Cisneros Gloria Anzald a Lorna Dee Cervantes and Elba Sanchez and from plays by El Teatro Campesino the United Farm Workers theater group A final chapter proposes that progressive scholarship and especially feminist scholarship must have at its core a reflexive theory of gender oppression that allows writers to simultaneously document oppression while taking into account the writer s own privilege to analyze the observed as well as the observer A da Hurtado is Associate Professor of Psychology University of California Santa Cruz

Voicing Chicana Feminisms Aida Hurtado,2003 Focusing on the voices of young women this book explores the relationship between Chicana feminism and the actual experiences of Chicanas today Chicana Feminisms Patricia Zavella,Gabriela F. Women and Citizenship St. Louis Marilyn Friedman Professor of Philosophy Washington University, 2005-09-16

The notion of citizenship is complex it can be at once an identity a set of rights privileges and responsibilities an elevated and exclusionary status a relationship between individual and state and more In recent decades citizenship has attracted interdisciplinary attention particularly with the transnational growth of Western capitalism Yet citizenship s relationship to gender has gone relatively unexplored despite the globally pervasive denial of citizenship to women historically and in many places ongoing today This highly interdisciplinary volume explores the political and cultural dimensions of citizenship and their relevance to women and gender Containing essays by a well known group of scholars including Iris Marion Young Alison Jaggar Martha Nussbaum and Sandra Bartky this book examines the conceptual issues and strategies at play in the feminist quest to give women full citizenship status The contributors take a fresh look at the issues going beyond conventional critiques and examine problems in the political and social arrangements practices and conditions that diminish women s citizenship in various parts of the world

Decentering the Center Uma Narayan, Sandra G. Harding, Sandra Harding, 2000 The essays in this volume bring to their focuses on philosophical issues the new angles of vision created by the multicultural global and postcolonial feminisms that have been developing around us These multicultural global and postcolonial feminist concerns transform mainstream notions of experience human rights the origins of philosophic issues philosophic uses of metaphors of the family white antiracism human progress scientific progress modernity the unity of scientific method the desirability of universal knowledge claims and other ideas central to philosophy
