Early Christianity in Alexandria M. David Litwa,2023-12-21 Alexandria was the epicenter of Hellenic learning in the ancient Mediterranean world yet little is known about how Christianity arrived and developed in the city during the late first and early second century CE In this volume M David Litwa employs underused data from the Nag Hammadi codices and early Christian writings to open up new vistas on the creative theologians who invented Christianities in Alexandria prior to

Origen and the catechetical school of the third century With clarity and precision he traces the surprising theological continuities that connect Philo and later figures including Basilides Carpocrates Prodicus and Julius Cassianus among others Litwa demonstrates how the earliest followers of Jesus navigated Jewish theology and tradition while simultaneously rejecting many Jewish customs and identity markers before and after the Diaspora Revolt His book shows how Christianity in Alexandria developed distinctive traits and seeded the world with ideas that still resonate today
