

Age is irrelevant in grief; at issue is not how old he was but how loved.

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

The Age Of Grief:

The Age of Grief Jane Smiley, 2011-01-05 The luminous novella and stories in The Age of Grief explore the vicissitudes of love friendship and marriage with all the compassion and insight that have come to be expected from Jane Smiley the Pulitzer Prize winning author of A Thousand Acres In The Pleasure of Her Company a lonely single woman befriends the married couple next door hoping to learn the secret of their happiness In Long Distance a man finds himself relieved of the obligation to continue an affair that is no longer compelling to him only to be waylaid by the guilt he feels at his easy escape And in the incandescently wise and moving title novella a dentist aware that his wife has fallen in love with someone else must comfort her when she is spurned while maintaining the secret of his own complicated sorrow Beautifully written with a wry intelligence and a lively comic touch The Age of Grief captures moments of great intimacy with grace clarity and indelible emotional power

Age of Grief Jane Smiley, 1987 Ten years since her first story was published prize winning author Jane Smiley now offers her first story collection where she turns her lively intelligence to a wry contemplation of the matters of love friendship and marriage

Understanding Jane Smiley Neil Nakadate, 1999 In this comprehensive study of Jane Smiley's fiction Neil Nakadate offers insight into the strikingly imaginative and intellectual range of a Pulitzer Prize winning writer best known for A Thousand Acres He provides close readings from the early Barn Blind to The All True Travels and Adventures of Lidie Newton and presents the first extended account of the connections between her life and her work

The Age of Spectacular Death Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2020-09-08 This book explores death in contemporary society or more precisely in the spectacular age by moving beyond classic studies of death that emphasised the importance of the death taboo and death denial to examine how we now do death Unfolding the notion of spectacular death as characteristic of our modern approach to death and dying it considers the new mediation or mediatisation of death and dying the commercialisation of death as a marketable commodity used to sell products advance artistic expression or provoke curiosity the re ritualisation of death and the growth of new ways of finding meaning through commemorating the dead the revolution of palliative care and the specialisation surrounding death particularly in relation to scholarship Presenting a range of case studies that shed light on this new understanding of death in contemporary culture The Age of Spectacular Death will appeal to scholars of sociology cultural and media studies psychology and anthropology with interests in death and dying

Threshold Dwellers in the Age of Global Pandemic Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2022-05-19 So many lives have been lost now and the death toll still continues to rise because of the COVID 19 pandemic The poor and the marginalized not surprisingly have been disproportionately affected The pandemic has exposed the fault lines not only in our healthcare but also in our political and economic system a system driven by the pursuit of the bottom line profits If we are not only to survive but also thrive as a global society the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic must lead us to explore ways of thinking being and dwelling that promote our shared flourishing It is time to take personal stock about ourselves who we are where we have been and where we are heading What can the pandemic teach us about ourselves What is it revealing about us and our situation How shall we dwell together Do we want to wake up to a new and better tomorrow after this nighttime of pandemic That will largely depend on the way we respond now Who are we becoming in this time of pandemic What daily practices are we doing as embodiments of the new world we are anticipating

The AfterGrief Hope Edelman, 2020-10-06 A validating new approach to the long term grieving process that explains why we feel stuck why that's normal and how shifting our perception of grief can help us grow from the New York Times bestselling author of Motherless Daughters This is perhaps one of the most important books about grief ever written It finally dispels the myth that we are all supposed to get over the death of a loved one Claire Bidwell Smith author of Anxiety The Missing Stage of Grief Aren't you over it yet Anyone who has experienced a major loss in their past knows this question We've spent years fielding versions of it both explicit and implied from family colleagues acquaintances and friends We recognize the subtle cues the slight eyebrow lift the soft startled Oh That long ago from those who wonder how an event so far in the past can still occupy so much precious mental and emotional real estate Because of the common but false assumption that grief should be time limited too many of us believe we're grieving wrong when sadness suddenly resurges sometimes months or even years after a loss The AfterGrief explains that the death of a loved one isn't something most of us get over get past put down or move beyond Grief is not an emotion to pass through on the way to feeling better Instead grief is in constant motion it is tidal easily and often reactivated by memories and sensory events and is re-triggered as we experience life transitions anniversaries and other losses Whether we want it to or not grief gets folded into our developing identities where it informs our thoughts hopes expectations behaviors and fears and we inevitably carry it forward into everything that follows Drawing on her own encounters with the ripple effects of early loss as well as on interviews with dozens of researchers therapists and regular people who've been bereaved New York Times bestselling author Hope Edelman offers profound advice for reassessing loss and adjusting the stories we tell ourselves about its impact on our identities With guidance for reframing a story of loss finding equilibrium within it and even experiencing renewed growth and purpose in its wake she demonstrates that though grief is a lifelong process it doesn't have to be a lifelong struggle

The Age of Terror David Plante, 2000-01-01 Set in the seamy world of the Russian sex slave trade The Age of Terror is the harrowing story of Joe a disillusioned young American expatriate and lapsed Catholic who searches for life's meaning in the Soviet Union on the eve of its disintegration Plante plays brilliantly with our assumptions of both the United States and Russia and ultimately proclaims a universal theme of sacredness and redemption

The Age of Chopin Halina Goldberg, 2004-05-07 This multidisciplinary collection addresses Chopin's life and oeuvre in various cultural contexts of his era Fourteen original essays by internationally known scholars suggest new connections between his compositions and the intellectual literary artistic and musical environs of Warsaw and Paris Individual essays consider representations of Chopin in the visual arts reception in the United States and in Poland analytical aspects of the mazurkas and waltzes and political literary and gender aspects of Chopin's music and legacy Several senior scholars represent the fields of American Western European and Polish history Slavic literature musicology music theory and art history

Handbook of Families and Health D. Russell Crane, Elaine S. Marshall, 2005-06-22 For scholars graduates and practitioners in the field of families and health an overview of research related to couple marital and family influences on health Editors Crane and Marshall Brigham Young U gathered contributions from specialists in disciplines including family studies marriage and family therapy nursing and family medicine From the beginning to the age of Henry VIII, by Richard Garnett.-v. 2. From the age of Henry VIII to the age of Milton, by Richard Garnett and Edmund Gosse.-v. 3. From Milton to Johnson, by Edmund Gosse.-v. 4. From the age of Johnson to the age of Tennyson, by Edmund Gosse Richard Garnett, 1903 Modern Applications to Group Work Kevin A. Fall, Justin E. Levitov, 2001 The effectiveness of group counselling as a treatment modality has been well established And while additional theoretical work will always be needed perhaps the greater challenge for contemporary group practitioners lies in crafting theoretically sound applications of group theory so that group methods can be used more effectively to benefit clients struggling with various psychological and developmental problems This book responds to this need by offering fourteen chapters of creative useful examples of how group methods can be successfully applied to a wide range of problems and populations Each chapter written by innovators from the fields of counselling social work psychology and psychiatry focuses on specific mental health problems of issues that will interest a wide population A careful analysis of each psychological or development problem greets the reader followed by a discussion of the theoretical basis for the interventions Each chapter utilises practical recommendations outlines of procedures and liberal use of case examples to illuminate important process points Each broad category Adults Children and Adolescents and Training and Theory includes interesting chapter topics such as Group counselling with late deafened adults Marital restoration groups Therapist's uses of self in group psychotherapy and Group play therapy with abused children The elegant combination of theory and practice offers the reader a range of easily implemented methods and techniques applied to each specified problem Modern Applications to Group Work is a valuable companion text for any group oriented course Undergraduate and graduate courses in group can use the text to illustrate the application of general group principles to specific psychological concerns Modern Applications to Group Work may be used as the primary text for advanced courses in group counselling psychology and social work programs Practitioners will be attracted to the book due to the comprehensive scope and the strong theoretical basis of each chapter that is followed by pragmatic treatment strategies Redefining Spiritual Spaces in the Age of Technology Stacey K. Guenther, Xiaolan Li, Michelle A. Scheidt, 2025-08-30 Emerging technologies are entering every aspect of human life including the spiritual realm At the same time spirituality has entered mainstream environments including business education health and healing and tech design This provides an opportunity for technology and wisdom traditions to evolve together due to the widening audiences and worldviews In this open access

volume an assembly of experts explores the intersection of spirituality and technology as they are emerging in a variety of contexts in our world Through a mixture of philosophy advocacy presentation of research findings and sharing of practices this book illustrates technology s influence on spirituality and vice versa and its applications to management strategy and leadership At the same time contributing authors identify the surfacing pitfalls shadow material and areas that must be attended to during this time of evolving landscapes Additionally two of the chapters highlight virtual practices that focus on racial healing which are of crucial import at this time in our collective history and another two explore healing justice and liberation through the uses of technology Written in a think piece style this book is accessible to those within and outside of academia This is an open access book      Affect and American Literature in the Age of Neoliberalism Rachel Greenwald Smith,2015-04-20 Rachel Greenwald Smith s Affect and American Literature in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the relationship between American literature and politics in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Smith contends that the representation of emotions in contemporary fiction emphasizes the personal lives of characters at a time when there is an unprecedented and often damaging focus on the individual in American life Through readings of works by Paul Auster Karen Tei Yamashita Ben Marcus Lydia Millet and others who stage experiments in the relationship between feeling and form Smith argues for the centrality of a counter tradition in contemporary literature concerned with impersonal feelings feelings that challenge the neoliberal notion that emotions are the property of the self      Psychotherapy in the Age of Political Polarization William McCown,Linda Chamberlain,2025-04-10 Psychotherapy in the Age of Political Polarization is a response to the challenge so many mental health professionals face How do we best assist our clients who are suffering from the political polarization that is pervasive in our culture This book explores how highly politicized interactions can often affect psychotherapy and counseling and ways to combat the division The liberal conservative division that exists in psychotherapy is discussed and ways of overcoming these differences to work on a common goal in a therapeutic setting is of central importance Useful case examples and vignettes are included to aid and mend divisions caused when encountering politically and ideologically challenging clients Furthermore the book explores how we ve become so divided the relevance of politics in therapy the interface of political polarization with psychological disorders and finally skills to aid mental health professionals in ethical practice This is an essential read for mental health professionals and students including social workers psychotherapists counselors and psychologists hoping to bridge the gap and reduce the negative impact of political polarization      German Cinema in the Age of Neoliberalism Hester Baer,2025-10-01 This book presents a new history of German film from 1980 2010 a period that witnessed rapid transformations including intensified globalization a restructured world economy geopolitical realignment and technological change all of which have affected cinema in fundamental ways Rethinking the conventional periodization of German film history Baer posits 1980 rather than 1989 as a crucial turning point for German cinema s embrace of a new market orientation and move away from the state sponsored film culture that characterized both DEFA and the New German Cinema Reading films from East West and post unification Germany together Baer argues that contemporary German cinema is characterized most strongly by its origins in and responses to advanced capitalism Informed by a feminist approach and in dialogue with prominent theories of contemporary film the book places a special focus on how German films make visible the neoliberal recasting of gender and national identities around the new millennium Handbook of Psychosocial Interventions for Veterans and Service Members Nathan David Ainspan, Craig J.
