Speaking The Unspeakable Marital Violence Among South Asian Immigrants In The United States:

Speaking the Unspeakable Margaret Abraham, 2000 Over the past 20 years much work has focused on domestic violence yet little attention has been paid to the causes manifestations and resolutions to marital violence among ethnic minorities especially recent immigrants Margaret Abraham's Speaking the Unspeakable is the first book to focus on South Asian women's experiences of domestic violence defined by the author as physical sexual verbal mental or economic coercion power or control perpetrated on a woman by her spouse or extended kin Abraham explains how immigration issues cultural assumptions and unfamiliarity with American social legal economic and other institutional systems coupled with stereotyping make these women especially vulnerable to domestic violence Abraham lets readers hear the voices of abused South Asian women Through their stories we learn of their weaknesses and strengths and of their experiences of domestic violence within the larger cultural social economic and political context We see both the individual strategies of resistance against their abusers as well as the pivotal role South Asian organizations play in helping these women escape abusive relationships Abraham also describes the central role played by South Asian activism as it emerged in the 1980s in the United States and addresses the ideas and practices both within and outside of the South Asian community that stereotype discriminate and oppress South Asians in their everyday lives

Cultural Psychology of Immigrants Ramaswami Mahalingam, 2013-12-19 This new volume provides an interdisciplinary perspective on how intersections of race class gender sexuality and culture shape the cultural psychology of immigrants It demonstrates the influence transnational ties and cultural practices and beliefs play on creating the immigrant self Distinguished scholars from a variety of fields examine the cultural psychological consequences of displacement among different immigrant communities Cultural Psychology of Immigrants opens with a variety of theoretical perspectives on immigration and a historical overview of sociological research on immigrants It then examines the racial discrimination of immigrants and the multifaceted influences on the creation of immigrant identities The final section documents the pivotal role of family contexts in shaping identity Each chapter illustrates the commonalities and differences among immigrants in the ways in which they make sense of their newfound selves in a displaced context Intended for advanced students and researchers in the fields of psychology social work marriage and family therapy public health anthropology sociology education and ethnic studies the book also serves as a resource in courses on cultural psychology immigrant studies minority groups race and ethnic relations self and identity culture and human development and immigrants and mental health

Sociologists in Action on Inequalities Shelley K. White, Jonathan M. White, Kathleen Odell Korgen, 2014-05-19 Sociologists in Action on Inequalities Race Class Gender and Sexuality by Shelley K White Jonathan M White and Kathleen Korgen is a brief anthology of original readings that are perfect for Race and Ethnicity Race Class and Gender Introduction to Sociology Social Problems Social Inequality Senior Capstone and other courses taught through the central lens of diversity Like its companion Sociologists in Action volume on social change and social justice this collection brings together dozens of accounts of sociologists who are using their sociology to make a positive impact on society Each of the 30 selections describe through firsthand experience how sociology can be used to address enduring problems of prejudice and discrimination based on race nationality class gender and sexuality Discussion questions and suggested readings and resources at the end of every chapter will provide students with opportunities to delve further into the topics covered and help create full and nuanced discussions grounded in the real world work of public and applied sociologists

Domestic Violence in Asian-American Communities Tuyen D. Nguyen, 2007-07-18 Domestic violence in Asian American communities remains a rarely discussed yet pervasive problem With eight chapters each dedicated to a different Asian American community the essays in this volume explore the factors involved in domestic violence in specific communities This unique project will provide an indispensable tool for scholars and researchers in social work and family studies who want to better understand the complexities of serving this growing and diverse population Understanding Marital Violence Kausiki Sarma, 2024-07-29 This book examines the roles and interconnections between structural factors and individual agency in marital violence focusing on women in heterosexual marital relationships With the overall aim of improving recognition and strengthening responses to marital violence it underlines what occurs as marital violence and why it is possibly occurring in the manner it does while simultaneously demonstrating how it is dealt with and resisted Based upon in depth qualitative data focussing upon the experiences of women facing marital violence and key informants from Assam in Northeast India this book sheds light upon four key areas To begin with what is named or recognised and not recognised as marital violence is assessed and a typology and associated denials informed by the capabilities approach is developed Further the re victimisation that happens through and within both civil and criminal justice is explored In addition to this the existing structural context highlighting changes that occur at a broader economic political and social level contextualising a society that is in transition has been emphasised To conclude conditioned by distinct material cultural constraints enablers and acknowledging the role played by emotions a temporal agential trajectory in response to marital violence is mapped specifically through the concepts of Habitus and Reflexivity In short this book attempts to decolonise certain aspects of academic knowledge around marital violence by asserting the need to consider distinct natures and forms of violence and violations that occur within marriages and the acknowledgement of a spectrum of actions in the agential trajectory so that victims survivors are not solely assessed by their decisions to stay or to leave an abusive marriage It will be of interest to scholars students professionals and policymakers working within social work social policy gender studies and violence prevention Asian Americans Pyong Gap Min, 2006 Compared to many existing texts on this subject which tend to take a rather historical approach this book focuses on more contemporary Asian experiences Thus Min has provided a new tool for those of use who have looked for adequate material to teach current Asian American trends in advanced undergraduate courses in the sociology of race as well as in ethnic studies Encompassing a variety of perspectives from prominent scholars makes this book a valuable device to examine the less visible aspects of Asian Americans lives Students and educators alike would certainly benefit from diligent study of this text

TEACHING SOCIOLOGY reviewed October 2006 by Etsuko Maruoka SUNY Stony BrookOffering a broad overview of the Asian American experience Asian Americans provides an accessible resource for all students interested in the expanding and important Asian American population While historical information is provided for each group the main focus is on the variables and issues that impact Asian American life today The scholars who author the chapters look at topics such as labor force participation and economic status educational achievements intermarriage intergroup relations and settlement patterns Photo essays help to enhance the presentations Key Features Covers the Asian American population as a whole as well as individual ethnic groups i e Korean Americans Indian Americans etc Covers theories as well as providing sociological data to illustrate issues for Asian Americans as a whole and as individual groups Visual essays on the following topics provide powerful illustrations of the text content Filipino Americans Japanese Americans Korean Americans Chinese Americans South Asian Americans Southeast Asian Americans Economic Adaptation Second Generation Experiences Updated to not only include information derived from 2000 Census data but also has a focus on the second generation experience

Reconfiguring Global Societies in the Pre-Vaccination Phase of the COVID-19 Pandemic Jack Fong,2024-05-01 Reconfiguring Global Societies in the Pre Vaccination Phase of the COVID 19 Pandemic examines lived experiences of the COVID 19 pandemic in communities and societies around the world before the arrival of vaccines This collection presents analyses of scholars from eight countries all of whom were engaged in the unfolding crisis of social forces across the world This timely volume conveys valuable insights about how public officials the state healthcare workers and ultimately citizens responded to consequences of the pandemic upon not only the body but also social relations in community city and society The contributing scholars document how state apparatuses urban configurations places of employment legal structures and ways of life responded to crisis altered social conditions during the pandemic The book investigates what societies experiencing crisis around the world reveal about the state s efficacy and inefficacy in fulfilling its social contract for its citizens especially on unresolved issues related to social relations based on politics race ethnicity gender and crime This collection brings together a cross section of scholars experiencing the same temporal moment of crisis together watching and observing how the pandemic of their age uncoiled itself into the fabric of community onto the institutions and bureaucracies of society and into the most intimate confines of the home

Domestic Violence at the Margins Natalie J. Sokoloff,Christina Pratt,2005 Reprints of the most influential recent work in the field as well as more than a dozen newly commissioned essays explore theoretical issues current research service provision and activism among Latinos African Americans Asian Americans Jewish Americans and lesbians The volume rejects simplistic analyses of the role of culture in domestic violence by elucidating the support systems available to battered women within different cultures while at the same time addressing the distinct problems generated by that culture Together the essays pose a compelling challenge to stereotypical images of battered women that are racist homophobic and xenophobic
