Speaking Out Womens Economic Empowerment In South Asia:

Speaking Out Marilyn Carr, Martha Alter Chen, Renana Jhabvala, 1997

Speaking Out Chrissie Whitehead, 1994

Speaking Out Aga Khan Foundation Canada, United Nations Development Fund for Women, 1996 The book demonstrates how women are gaining increased access to and control over economic resources and how this in turn has led to far reaching socio cultural and political changes It also shows how women are now building and taking control of their own organizations which are becoming more autonomous and financially self reliant

Speaking Out Women's Economic Empowerment in South Asia Carr, Chen, Renana Jhabvala, 1996-01-01

Democracy and Civil Society in Asia Fahim Quadir, 2004-03-18 This collection explores the possibilities for expanding and consolidating existing democratic spaces in Asia under the pressure of market reforms It provides new insights into the prospects for democratic consolidations in the region The book explores the ways of going beyond the official and elitist discourses on constitutional democracy and economic development It analyzes the complex challenges of deepening poverty and highlights the obstacles to the empowerment of marginalized communities including women and ethno religious minorities The authors of this volume suggest ways to engender development through grassroots democracy in the new millennium

Development and Security in Southeast Asia Carolina G. Hernandez, 2019-07-15 This title was first published in 2003 This three volume set examines the relationship between government and civil society in their efforts to define and pursue security Including the results of an extensive research program each volume is organized around one of the three principal themes environment people and globalization supplying compelling evidence of the tension between economic change and human well being Challenging the conventional wisdom about the beneficial results of economically induced change this first volume suggests that too often the mismanagement of development jeopardizes the security of individuals families communities and possibly the state by harming the very environment which is required to sustain both people and their economic existence Bringing together an international group of scholars from a variety of disciplines this volume is particularly relevant for academic and general research communities in the areas of social economic political and security matters of Southeast Asia

Income-poverty and Beyond Raja Jesudoss Chelliah, R. Sudarshan, 1999 Income Poverty and Beyond emphasizes the need to go beyond the conventional definition of poverty and look at the various human aspects of the problem Special care has been taken to make the information and analysis accessible to the general reader

Civil Society and Women Activists in the Middle East Wanda Krause, 2012-05-27 In the Middle East and in Egypt in particular there has always been a tendency to accord complete supremacy to the authority and might of the state and to see society as a separate powerless entity However after the uprising of 2011 this assumption was turned on its head And it is the wide range of political activity beyond the remit of the official state where Wanda Krause locates a dynamic potential for political change from the bottom up She looks in particular at the influential role of women s private voluntary organisations in Egypt in shaping concepts of civil society and democracy

Exploring both secular and Islamist organisations she offers a steadfast critique of the view that Islamic women activists are insignificant backward or uncivil Krause s examination of women activists in Egypt today is vital for those interested in Middle East and Gender Studies as well as those researching the wider issues of civil society and democratisation

Empowering Society Usha Jumani, 2006-03-06 Empowerment is an integral element of a democratic system The maturity of a democracy is directly related to the level of empowerment its citizens and institutions experience The term empowerment is used in different contexts and this book addresses this problem through a comparative analysis of three major organisational systems business government and social development The book presents a new conceptual framework for understanding the process of empowerment It combines case studies specially for this volume with secondary data and the author s first hand experience of working with development organisations The differential understanding of empowerment in various organisational contexts helps to promote cross sectoral learning and contributes to a qualitative shift in empowering society as a whole

Livelihoods at the Margins James Staples, 2016-07-01 Sex workers street hawkers drug sellers cleaners they are people living on the margins of urban life who are ubiquitous but widely misunderstood and notably absent from mainstream economic analyses In Livelihood on the Margins anthropologists and practitioners engaged in hands on development work use fine grained ethnographic research to cut through the conventional narratives that romanticize victimize or demonize these populations They go beyond the trendy sustainable livelihoods approach to development to examine the relationship between the agency people can actually wield over their own lives and the broader socio political constraints that persistently push them to the margins Making these multi level connections across a wide range of world regions and situations this volume shows how the micro concerns of ordinary people might usefully guide the macro concerns of governments NGOs and global institutions who are engineering large scale social and economic development programs Livelihood at the Margins is an engaging and eye opening read for undergraduate and graduate students studying development in anthropology sociology geography economics and other disciplines as well as a useful tool for developments studies researchers and practitioners
