anyone with a taste for the gruesome and the macabre Cinema of Pain Liz Czach, André Loiselle, 2020-07-29 Since the defeat of the pro sovereigntists in the 1995 Quebec referendum the loss of a cohesive nationalistic vision in the province has led many Québécois to use their ancestral origins to inject meaning into their everyday lives. A Cinema of Pain argues that this phenomenon is observable in a pervasive sense of nostalgia in Quebec culture and is especially present in the province's vibrant but deeply wistful cinema. In Québécois cinema nostalgia not only denotes a sentimental longing for the bucolic pleasures of bygone French Canadian traditions but as this edited collection suggests it evokes the etymological sense of the term which underscores the element of pain algos associated with the longing for a return home nostos. Whether it is in grandiloquent historical melodramas such as Saphin un homme et son pèché Binam 2002 intimate realist dramas like Tout ce que tu possèdes Mond 2012 charming art films like C.R.A.Z.Y. Vallée 2005 or even gory horror movies like Sur le Seuil Tessier 2003 the contemporary Québécois screen projects an image of shared suffering that unites the nation through a melancholy search for home.

Cult Films Allan Havis, 2007-12-14 Cult Films: Taboo and Transgression looks at nine decades of cult films history within American culture. By highlighting three films per decade including a brief summary of the decade's identity and sensibility the book investigates the quality ironies and spirit of cult film evolution. The twenty-seven films selected for this study are analyzed for story content and in their respective transgressions regarding social aesthetic and political codes. Characteristic of this book is the notion that many exciting genres make up cult films including horror sci-fi fantasy film noir and black comedy. Further the book reaches out to several foreign film directors over the decades in order to view cult films as an intentional art form. Political and ideological controversies are covered arresting back story details that lend perspective on a film fill out the analysis and the historic framework for many film titles. The book by emphasizing the condensed survey over decades and by choosing outstanding titles differs from other general studies on cult films.

Madame Sul Te Wan n e Nellie Conley the first African American actor or actress to sign a film contract and be a featured performer. Dorothy Davenport who parlayed the publicity surrounding her actor husband's drug related death into a career as a producer of social reform melodramas. Lois Weber a street corner evangelist who became one of the best known and highest paid directors in Hollywood. Lina Basquette the Screen Tragedy Girl who married and divorced studio mogul Sam Warner led The Hollywood Aristocrats Orchestra claimed to have been a spy for the American Office of Strategic Services during World War II and became a renowned dog expert in her later years and many more. An Encyclopedic Dictionary of Women in Early American Films 1895-1930 also includes comprehensive appendices of the WAMPAS Baby Stars the silent stars remembered in the Graumann Chinese Theater Forecourt of the Stars and those immortalized on the Hollywood Walk of Stars.
