The Spectacular Modern Woman Liz Conor, 2004 Liz Conor explores the role of media technology in the emergence of the modern woman in the 1920s At once liberating confining the media images of women set standards of appearance that were closely tied to ideas about the roles a woman could fulfill from city girl to mannequin to flapper Portrayals of Women in Early Twentieth-Century China Sandy Ng, 2025-10-01 Portrayals of Women in Early Twentieth Century China explores the role played by woman and their visual representations in introducing modern design and modern ways of living to China It investigates this through an analysis of how women and modern design were represented in the advertisements photographs and films of Republican era China This study explores the intersection of modernity and the Chinese woman as they negotiated their changing identities through and with new designs that proliferated in Chinese households in the first half of the twentieth century The advertisements mass media photographs and films took on the function of social conditioning conveying to the viewers ideas of modern social standards behavior and appearances With women both instrumentalised within these images and addressed through them their visual representations became metaphors that fashioned a new portrait of China while concurrently impacting on the identity agency and subjectivity of women themselves Imagining la Chica Moderna Joanne Hershfield, 2008-06-27 A look at how the modern woman was envisioned in postrevolutionary Mexican popular culture and how she figured in contestations over Mexican national identity Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J. Cooper, 2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 85 is one of Australia s most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark s contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark s writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark s writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark s fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark s fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss True Story Shanon Fitzpatrick, 2022-07-19 Focusing on
