Critical Transnational Feminist Praxis Amanda Lock Swarr,Richa Nagar,2012-02-01 Provocative timely and global this volume offers a critical and grounded engagement with transnational feminism through the lens of praxis the juncture of theory and practice In so doing it grapples with questions of power and representation while remaining deeply committed to radical critiques and agendas of transnational and postcolonial feminisms Long time activists and well known scholars speak to a wide range of issues and practices including women s studies curricula NGOs transnational and LGBTQ studies feminist methodologies and film These essays similarly conceptualize ways to more effectively theorize feminist collaborative practices while subverting such rigid established dichotomies as theory practice academic activist individual collaborative and the global North South A number of transnational projects are highlighted the Guyanese Red Thread collective the Ananya Dance Theater the Philippine Women Center of British Columbia the Filipino Canadian Youth Alliance the VIVA Project and the Indian organization Sangtin Comprehensive in scope and rigorous in critical scrutiny these powerful essays set the twenty first century agenda for political engagement through feminist scholarship The mix of styles makes for a lively read that is accessible for its extraordinary candor its combination of theory with firmly grounded empirical examples and an unflinching confrontation of pain and conflict It made me think about entirely new things and about familiar things in new ways and to make connections among them Louise Fortmann University of California Berkeley Amanda Lock Swarr is Assistant Professor of Women Studies at the University of Washington Seattle Richa Nagar is Professor of Gender Women and Sexuality Studies at the University of Minnesota Twin Cities She is the author with Sangtin writers of Playing with Fire Feminist Thought and Activism through Seven Lives in India

Achieving Sustainable Communities in a Global Economy Ralph D. Christy, 2004 This important book explores alternative strategies in agricultural and rural development to address the impacts of globalization processes on smallholder agriculturalists and marginalized rural people Its goal is twofold 1 to identify and assess the key processes by which globalization is affecting the smallholder agricultural and rural sectors and 2 to identify and propose both micro and macro level policies and other strategies to deal with the problems that arise

Consuming Mexican Labor Ronald Mize, Alicia Swords, 2010-10-15 Mexican migration to the United States and Canada is a highly contentious issue in the eyes of many North Americans and every generation seems to construct the northward flow of labor as a brand new social problem The history of Mexican labor migration to the United States from the Bracero Program 1942-1964 to the North American Free Trade Agreement NAFTA suggests that Mexicans have been actively encouraged to migrate northward when labor markets are in short supply only to be turned back during economic downturns In this timely book Mize and Swords dissect the social relations that define how corporations consumers and states involve Mexican immigrant laborers in the politics of production and consumption The result is a comprehensive and contemporary look at the increasingly important role that Mexican immigrants play in the North American economy
