The Activity Of God

Paul J. Wadell C.P.

The Activity Of God:

God in Man's Experience Leonard Griffith, 1968 The Ghost of Totalitarianism Martín Grassi, 2024-09-13 Martin Grassi deconstructs the totalitarian paradigm underlying Western political and theological discourses by a critical examination of the concept of spirit/pneuma. This notion plays a paramount role in such Western discourses as biology, cosmology, politics, and theology, for it is the principle that turns a plurality of elements into a systematic unity. Christian political theology finds in the Holy Spirit the principle of efficacy of God's economy of redemption, which has been ultimately defined as the realization of the Kingdom of God as a perfect and unified political system under the One Ruler. Only through a deconstruction of this semantic performance of the Spirit are we to look for an alternative understanding of God and a Trinitarian dynamics that could stress singularity and relationality without reducing community to a merely organic totality.

Embodiment Justin E.H. Smith, 2017-06-02 Embodiment, having being in or being associated with a body, is a feature of the existence of many entities, perhaps even of all entities. Why entities should find themselves in this condition is the philosophical problem that concerns the present volume. The contributors to this volume shine light on a number of demanding questions that have driven reflection on embodiment throughout the history of philosophy. We Have Been Believers James H. Evans, 1992 In this, the first full-scale black systematic theology in twenty years, James Evans emerges as a major and distinctive voice in American theology. Seeking to overcome the chasm between church practice and theological reflection, Evans situates theology squarely in the nexus of faith with freedom. There, with a sure touch, he uplifts revelatory aspects of black religious experience that reanimate classical areas of theology, and he creates a theology with a heart, a soul, and a voice that speaks directly to our condition. Metaphysics and God Kevin Timpe, 2009-05-07 This volume focuses on contemporary issues in the philosophy of religion through an engagement with Eleonore Stump's seminal work in the field. Topics covered include the metaphysics of the divine nature, the nature of love, and God's relation to human happiness and the issue of human agency. Ex Auditu - Volume 12 Klyne Snodgrass, 2004-06-23 Ex Auditu began as the journal incorporating the papers of the Fredrick Neumann Symposium of Princeton Theological Seminary. After the first four volumes, the journal began publishing the papers from the North Park Symposium on the Theological Interpretation of Scripture. The intent from the first has been to provide a forum for doing interdisciplinary theology from a biblical perspective for the benefit of the Church. Each annual publication focuses on a topic crucial to the life of today's Church. Additionally, each issue contains an annotated bibliography and a sermon, which makes it a practical guide for pastors. Wadell C.P.,1990-11-30 Friendship and the Moral Life is not simply a theoretical argument about how moral theology might be done if it took friendship more seriously Rather the book exhibits how without friendship our lives are morally not worth living The book begins with a consideration of why a new model of the moral life is needed Wadell then examines the ethics of Aristotle who viewed the moral life as based on a specific understanding of the purpose of being human with friendship being an important factor in enabling people to acquire virtues necessary for achieving this purpose Through the thought of Augustine Aelred of Reivaulx and Karl Barth the question is raised whether friendship is at odds with Christian love or whether their relation depends on one s narrative account of friendship Thomas Aquinas understanding of charity as friendship with God is examined to clarify this relationship By locating friendship within the story of God s redemption through Christ Wadell helps us see why friendship properly understood is integral to the Christian life and not at odds with it Such a friendship draws us to love all others who seek God and teaches us not to restrict our concern to a special few in preferential love The book closes by investigating how friendship as a model for the moral life might work in everyday life

The Christocentric Cosmology of St Maximus the Confessor Torstein Tollefsen,2008-08-07 St Maximus the Confessor 580 662 was a major Byzantine thinker a theologian and philosopher He developed a philosophical theology in which the doctrine of God creation the cosmic order and salvation is integrated in a unified conception of reality Christ the divine Logos is the centre of the principles the logoi according to which the cosmos is created and in accordance with which it shall convert to its divine source Torstein Tollefsen treats Maximus thought from a philosophical point of view and discusses similar thought patterns in pagan Neoplatonism The study focuses on Maximus doctrine of creation in which he denies the possibility of eternal coexistence of uncreated divinity and created and limited being Tollefsen shows that by the logoi God institutes an ordered cosmos in which separate entities of different species are ontologically interrelated with man as the centre of the created world The book also investigates Maximus teaching of God s activities or energies and shows how participation in these energies is conceived according to the divine principles of the logoi An extensive discussion of the

Dalferth,2015-11-10 This major work now available in English is considered by many to be one of the finest and most significant contributions to modern Christology Preeminent scholar and theologian Ingolf Dalferth argues for a radical reorientation of Christology for historical hermeneutical and theological reasons He defends an orthodox vision of Christology in the context of a dialogue with modernity showing why the resurrection not the incarnation ought to be the central idea of Christological thinking His proposal is both pneumatological and Trinitarian and addresses themes such as soteriology the doctrine of atonement and preaching
