Roux, 2004-03 Divided into eight sections each with introductory essays the selections offer rich and detailed insights into a diverse multinational philosophical landscape Revealed in this pathbreaking work is the way in which traditional philosophical issues related to ethics metaphysics and epistemology for instance take on specific forms in Africa's postcolonial struggles Much of its moral political and social philosophy is concerned with the turbulent processes of embracing modern identities while protecting ancient cultures

Reading Hebrews and 1 Peter with the African American Great Migration Jennifer T. Kaalund, 2018-11-29 Kaalund examines the constructed and contested Christian Jewish identities in Hebrews and 1 Peter through the lens of the New Negro a diasporic identity similarly constructed and contested during the Great Migration in the early 20th century Like the identity Christian the New Negro emerged in a context marked by instability creativity and the need for a sense of permanence in a hostile political environment Upon examination both identities also show complex internal diversity and debate that disrupts any simple articulation as purely resistant or accommodating to its hegemonic and oppressive environment Kaalund's investigation into the construction of the New Negro highlights this multiplicity and contends that the rhetoric of place race and gender were integral to these processes of inventing a way of being in the world that was seemingly not reliant on one's physical space Putting these issues into dialogue with 1 Peter and Hebrews allows for a reading of the formation of Christian identity as similarly engaging the rhetoric of place and race in constructive and contested ways

African and European Readers of the Bible in Dialogue Gerald West, Hans (J.H) de Wit, 2008-07-31 Far too long the relationship between European and African biblical scholarship has been a non relationship Divergent insights into how biblical texts should be interpreted and made fruitful for the current context cultural differences colonial past and post colonial future radically different social situations this all made companionship and real interaction difficult This rich and multilayered volume result of a Stellenbosch conference 2006 attempts to disclose new modes of dialogue between readers of the Bible from those two worlds More than twenty theologians from Africa and Europe reflect together on how readers from radically different contexts professional and ordinary alike may become allies in an ethically accountable way of relating the biblical text to their current global situations and how a process of mutual learning may be established This book provides important insights in intercultural hermeneutics the relationship between classical historico literary approaches and new forms of interpretation It also gives examples of new forms of how to read the Bible in the secularised European context and the HIV Aids stricken Africa Particularly enriching is that every contribution is followed by a personal letter of response of another contributor to the book giving impulses for further dialogue and debate The book is useful for all biblical scholars and students in particular for those interested in how to do contextual exegesis in a manner that also takes into account the context of the other The South Africa Reader

Given the rise of new interdisciplinary and methodological approaches to African American and Black Atlantic studies The Oxford Handbook of the African American Slave Narrative will offer a fresh wide ranging assessment of this major American literary genre The volume will begin with articles that consider the fundamental concerns of gender sexuality community and the Christian ethos of suffering and redemption that are central to any understanding of slave narratives The chapters that follow will interrogate the various agendas behind the production of both pre and post Emancipation narratives and take up the various interpretive problems they pose Strategic omissions and veiled gestures were often necessary in these life accounts as they revealed disturbing too painful truths far beyond what white audiences were prepared to hear While touching upon the familiar canonical autobiographies of Frederick Douglass and Harriet Jacobs the Handbook will pay more attention to the under studied narratives of Josiah Henson Sojourner Truth William Grimes Henry Box Brown and other often overlooked accounts In addition to the literary autobiographies of bondage the volume will anatomize the powerful WPA recordings of interviews with former slaves during the late 1930s With essays on the genre s imaginative afterlife its final essays will chart the emergence and development of neoslave narratives most notably in Styron s The Confessions of Nat Turner Toni Morrisons s Beloved and Octavia Butler s provocative science fiction novel Kindred In short the Handbook will provide a long overdue assessment of the state of the genre and the vital scholarship that continues to grow around it work that is offering some of the most provocative analysis emerging out of the literary studies discipline as a whole The

Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L. Dick,2013-06-17 The Hidden History of South Africa s Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country s liberation struggles By looking to records from a slave lodge women s associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa's class and racial barriers Francophone African Fiction Jonathan Ngate, 1988 Nelson Thornes West African Readers, 2002-08 Nelson Thornes West African Readers have been specially written for children in junior schools throughout West Africa The books cover a broad range of subject areas from the curriculum especially science social science music mathematics poetry and drama and are interwoven with a variety of other stories African Pentecostalism and Eschatological Expectations Marius Nel, 2019-09-16 The Pentecostalisation of African Christianity has been called the African Reformation of the past thirty years African Pentecostalism is a diverse movement characterised by its emphases on Spirit baptism divine healing charismatic worship and eschatological expectations This work investigates its eschatological systems in terms of its unrealised expectation of the second coming of Christ and suggestions are presented for the movement to keep its eschatology at the heart of its impetus This is accomplished through a hermeneutical awareness of the distinctiveness of Pentecostalism as a restorationist movement Written for pastors church leaders and believers this book discusses the literalistic way of reading the Bible in most of the classical Pentecostal components of African Pentecostalism supporting their premillennialist and even dispensational eschatological views It suggests a new Pentecostal hermeneutics developed by scholarship in the past forty years in line with significant elements of the way in which early Pentecostals read the Bible This new hermeneutical awareness implies new and exciting ways of thinking about eschatology that will enrich and enlighten African Pentecostalism in its hope for the second coming of Christ Tracking Changes in South African Reading Literacy Achievement, 2023-09-04 Reading has been touted as the most crucial and lacking skill for young South African children This book delves into the issues and measurement considerations surrounding reading literacy using the Progress in International Reading Literacy Study PIRLS data The contributors to this volume explore the complexities of measuring reading literacy with an international survey curricula misalignment and how the PIRLS framework can inform teaching and learning Contributors are Caroline B ning Celeste Combrinck Peter Courtney Martin Gustafsson Nompumelelo L Mohohlwane Nangamso Mtsatse Elizabeth Pretorius Karen Roux Claudia Schreiner Tobias Schroedler Nick Taylor Stephen Taylor Surette van Staden and Hans Wagemaker An African Commentary on the Letter of James J. Ayodeji Adewuya, 2023-01-19 Africa is a necessary but an often neglected continent So also is the letter of James necessary but neglected Yet there is perhaps no biblical text that speaks to the life situation in Africa in the twenty first century more directly than the book of James An African Commentary on the Letter of James is an attempt to hear the message of James's letter from a non Western social and cultural setting It seeks to demonstrate how one's worldview language culture economic status and religion make a significant difference in appropriating the message of the biblical text The commentary explores how the written word impacts the readers in a predominantly oral culture It attempts to hear what James is saying from a different context but in doing so explains James with a different voice Like the letter of James itself the commentary uses pithy sayings proverbs and aphorisms to explain the meaning of the text      Afrique Sur Seine Odile Cazenave,2006-09-01 Afrique sur Seine addresses the development since the 1950s of a new type of Francophone African novel created by first generation black African authors living in France Drawing parallels with other literatures like the beur and Antillean novels Odile Cazenave examines how these authors men and women are parting from mainstream African literature by exploring more personal avenues while retaining a shared interest in the community of African emigrants Cazenave deftly shows us how these writers maneuver between two cultures languages and spheres of being and how they struggle to appeal to their French audience without being untrue to the complex history and reality they portray Cazenave further discusses the stereotyping often promoted by French publishing houses to sell African authored texts and its impact At a time when immigration is an important issue in France and when post colonial identity and culture is the object of still increasing interest and attention Afrique sur Seine guides us through writing that surprises with its fresh insights into multiculturalism and integration      The Bible in Africa Gerald West,Musa Dube,2021-10-01 Although the arrival of the Bible in Africa has often been a tale of terror the Bible has become an African book This volume explores the many ways in which Africans have made the Bible their own The essays in this book offer a glimpse of the rich resources that constitute Africa s engagement with the Bible Among the topics are the historical development of biblical interpretation in Africa the relationship between African biblical scholarship and scholarship in the West African resources for reading the Bible the history and role of vernacular translation in particular African contexts the ambiguity of the Bible in Africa the power of the Bible as text and symbol and the intersections between class race gender and culture in African biblical interpretation The book also contains an extensive bibliography of African biblical scholarship In fact it is one of the most comprehensive collections of African biblical scholarship available in print This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details      Reading Ritual Wesley J. Bergen,2005-05-05 This book draws on a variety of disciplines to undertake a unique analysis of Leviticus 1 7 Rather than studying the rituals prescribed in Leviticus as arcane historical theological texts of little interest to the modern reader or as examples of primitive rituals that have no parallel in Western society this book provides many points of contact between animal sacrifice rituals and various parts of post modern society Modern rituals such as Monday Night Football eating fast food sending sons and daughters off to war and even the rituals of modern academia are contrasted with the text of Leviticus In addition responses to Leviticus among modern African Christians and in the early church are used to draw out further understandings of how the language and practice of sacrifice still shapes the lives of people This study takes a consciously Christian perspective on Leviticus Leviticus is assumed to be an ongoing part of the Christian Bible The usual Christian response to Leviticus is to ignore it or to claim that all sacrifice has now been superseded by the sacrifice of Jesus This study refutes those simplistic assertions and attempts to reassert the place of Leviticus as a source for Christian self understanding

This is volume 417 of JSOTS and volume 9 of Playing the Texts      Understanding African Philosophy Richard H. Bell, 2002
This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions. Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play. The issues discussed include gender, authority, female autonomy and unruliness, courtship and marriage, language and speech, and performance and theatricality.
