African-American Sports Greats David L. Porter, 1995-10-30 African American athletes have played a significant role in the development and popularity of American professional sports and have encountered numerous obstacles on the road to athletic success This is the first comprehensive multi sport biographical dictionary of African Americans who reached the pinnacles of success in their sport It contains more personal and career profiles of African American sports greats than are found in any other single source Biographical profiles of 166 noted athletes coaches and administrators in team and individual sports include both historical figures such as Jesse Owens and Satchel Paige and contemporary stars such as Charles Barkley, Ken Griffey Jr., Michael Jordan, Jackie Joyner Kersee, Shaquille O'Neal, and Emmitt Smith. Forty-four sports historians contributed the colorfully written biographies which blend both personal background information and athletic career accomplishments. All information is current through the middle of 1995. The dictionary covers the contributions made by African American greats in football, baseball, basketball, track and field, boxing, wrestling, auto and stock car racing, golf, thoroughbred racing, tennis, cycling, and figure skating. More than two thirds of the entries represent team sports. The dictionary is organized alphabetically by person. Each colorfully written profile is 800-1,000 words in length and traces the subject's personal life, family, and educational background, personal struggles, career accomplishments, records, set statistical data, awards and honors, and overall impact, and features lively quotations by and about the sports luminaries. Each entry contains a handy bibliography of books and articles about the subject. Biographies of managers, coaches, and club executives describe their teams, statistical achievements, accomplishments, strategy, and sports impact. A general introduction traces the historic struggle of African American athletes in professional and Olympic sports, and appendices provide alphabetical listings of biographical entries and entries by sport. A selection of photos complement the profiles. For the sports fan or librarian, this is a first stop for biographical information that captures the personality of the athlete and includes all the pertinent information about his or her accomplishments. It is an essential addition to the reference sections of junior high, high school, and public libraries.

Pro Basketball's All-Time All-Stars Robert W. Cohen, 2013-03-14 Examines the best professional basketball players from each of the five distinct periods and ranks the five greatest players at each position throughout the history of the game.

The Indianapolis ABCs Paul Debono, 2015-08-01 The Indianapolis ABCs were formed around the turn of the century playing company teams from around the city; they soon played other teams in Indiana, including some white teams. Their emergence coincided with the remarkable growth of black baseball, and by 1916 the ABCs won their first major championship. When the Negro National League was formed in 1920, Indianapolis was one of its charter members. But player raids by the Eastern Colored League formed in 1923 hurt the ABCs, and by the Depression the team was fading into oblivion. The team was briefly resurrected as a Negro league team in the late 1930s but was otherwise relegated to the semiprofessional ranks until its demise in the 1940s. Through contemporary newspaper accounts, extensive research, and interviews with the few former ABC players still living, this is the story of the Indianapolis team and the rise of Negro League baseball. The work includes a roster of ABC players with short biographies of the most prominent.
