The essays in this collection acknowledge the rich Gothic tradition in Asian narratives that deal with themes of the fantastic the macabre and the spectral Through close analyses of Asian works using the theoretical framework outlined by Gothic criticism these essays seek to expand the notion of the Gothic to include several popular Asian works Broadly divided into essays on postcolonial Asian Gothic Asian American Gothic and the Gothic writings of specific Asian nations this volume covers a wide variety of Asian texts The essays of Part One demonstrate the flexibility of Postcolonial Gothic literature in adopting divergent or even contradictory ideologies Part Two evokes the Gothic as the theoretical framework from which to interrogate the writings of Asian American authors Maxine Hong Kingston Sky Lee l thi diem thuy and David Henry Hwang Part Three studies the Gothic tradition in the national literatures of China Japan Korea and Turkey The Almost Complete Collection of True Singapore Ghost Stories Russell Lee, 1994 Spectropolis Joshua Comaroff, 2025-11-04

How economic transformation and the spirit world collide in hypermodern Singapore In Singapore the financial center of Southeast Asia hyperurbanization and commercial development exist alongside enduring belief in the economic power of ghosts in their ability to control the flows of money and value and to determine the outcome of investments and wagers Spectropolis explores the unlikely collusion of these two systems demonstrating both the productive role of popular beliefs in the modern world and the surprising correlations between late capitalism and the workings of the spirit realm Detailing the logic and practices of Singapore's ghost economy from performing exorcisms on real estate development sites to offering money and commodities to the dead as a hedge against precarious real world transactions Joshua Comaroff shows how speculative finance largely governed by chance and volatility is understood via its inherently spectral qualities Through the influence of Chinese Buddhist Taoist thought the movement of capital is placed under the sway of cosmology and geomancy resulting in a built environment that is both technologically advanced and quite literally enchanted Based on detailed case studies and years of extensive fieldwork Spectropolis argues for the power of popular belief systems to theorize contemporary socioeconomic conditions and to give form to collective affect as well as shared aspirations and anxieties As

Comaroff demonstrates the uniquely all consuming nature of Singapore's tightly compressed urban economy is such that it may subsume even that which lies beyond the threshold of life itself. The Way That Lives in the Heart Jean Elizabeth DeBernardi,2006 The Way That Lives in the Heart is a richly detailed ethnographic analysis of the practice of Chinese religion in the modern multicultural Southeast Asian city of Penang Malaysia The book conveys both an understanding of shared religious practices and orientations and a sense of how individual men and women imagine represent and transform popular religious practices within the time and space of their own lives This work is original in three ways First the author investigates Penang Chinese religious practice as a total field of religious practice suggesting ways in which the religious culture including spirit mediumship has been transformed in the conjuncture with modernity Second the book emphasizes the way in which socially marginal spirit mediums use a religious anti language and unique religious rituals to set themselves apart from mainstream society Third the study investigates Penang Chinese religion as the product of a specific history rather than presenting an overgeneralized overview that claims to represent a single Chinese religion Oral Traditions of Southeast Asia and Oceania Herman C.
