Achieving Education for All through Public-Private Partnerships? Pauline Rose, 2013-09-13 Concern for achieving Millennium Development Goals MDGs by 2015 has led to a focus on the role that non state providers NSPs can offer in extending access and improving quality of basic services While NSPs can help to fill a gap in provision to those excluded from state provision recent growth in both for profit and not for profit providers in developing countries has sometimes resulted in fragmentation of service delivery To address this attention is increasingly given in the education sector to developing partnerships between governments and NSPs Partnerships are further driven by the expectation that the state has the moral social and legal responsibility for overall education service delivery and so should play a role in facilitating and regulating NSPs Even where the ultimate aim of both non state providers and the state is to provide education of acceptable quality to all children this book provides evidence from diverse contexts across Africa South Asia and Latin America to highlight the challenges in them partnering to achieve this This book was published as a special issue of Development in Practice

From Compliance to Learning Husein Abdul-Hamid, Sarah Mintz, Namrata Saraogi, 2017-04-13 From Compliance to Learning A System for Harnessing the Power of Data in the State of Maryland builds on a 2015 World Bank report that assessed Education Management Information Systems EMISs in the state of Maryland That report uncovered a successful system and this one expands on lessons learned and ways to apply them in practice The goal of this study is to distill

Maryland's good practices in education data systems and share them in a way that is useful to education stakeholders interested in harnessing the power of data to strengthen learning outcomes. This study also examines the history of education data collection and use in the United States with a focus on Maryland including a review of federal and state legislation that has helped to shape Maryland's education data policies and systems. In the digital age, information is power. When information is effectively harnessed and aligned with student learning, it carries the potential to radically transform the delivery of education as well as the sector as a whole. Increasingly, education systems are moving away from using education data narrowly for compliance purposes; instead, they are embracing data as a tool to drive systemwide innovation, professionalization, and most importantly, learning. Whether to prioritize and optimize data and information systems around student learning is no longer an option; it is imperative for education systems that aim to excel and achieve strong learning outcomes. Over the past several decades, fundamental shifts have occurred in the way that education data are collected, managed, and used. Today, real-time learning data inform classroom instruction, predictive analytics identify at-risk youth before they drop out of school, and data from preschool to workforce are linked to help guide education reforms. These represent just a few of the innovative ways that schools and other stakeholders across the United States are harnessing data to improve education. The state's success in establishing an enabling environment for education data systems and data utilization has built a strong foundation. Maryland effectively aligned a complex statewide data system to deliver value. Prioritization of integration and alignment was key. The state then launched a longitudinal data system center that would drive an adaptive education system with insights that track students from pre-kindergarten to entry in the workforce. Data across the state are high quality and follow strict rules to preserve privacy and enhance security. Maryland's utilization of data also offers valuable lessons. The statewide data system supports policy makers and decision makers in planning and management as well as teachers, students, and families in instruction and learning. Consistent across Maryland's structuring and use of data systems were a strong vision and a road map to execute that vision. Maryland's journey offers many lessons not only for countries with advanced data systems but also for those in less developed stages. While the technology and information exist to achieve data for learning, harnessing data within the right information system and ensuring utilization are challenging endeavors. An array of factors must align: leadership, policies, processes, and resources, to name a few, to effectively harness data to support and drive strong learning outcomes.

Political Governance and the African Peer Review Mechanism Omololu Fagbadebo, Isioma U. Ile, 2025-04-15. This book presents a comparative analysis of political governance and includes case studies from various African countries. It further sheds light on the paradox of poverty despite Africa's plentiful resources and traces its roots in historical legacies of colonialism and leadership failures. The book examines the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) initiated by the African Union (AU) in 2003 and explores the APRM's role in promoting sustainable development, political stability, and integration. Against this background, the book dissects the four thematic areas of the APRM with a focal point on democratic and political governance illuminating challenges and proposing solutions In case studies on selected African countries contributors present governance structures highlighting the struggle for accountability representation and public participation The book highlights alarming indicators of weak governance including corruption and declining public engagement and reflects Africa s journey toward effective governance By doing so the book scrutinizes African governing systems responses to crises and offers valuable insights into the continent s quest for progress and transformation

The State of Public Administration Donald C Menzel,Harvey E White,2015-01-28 The trends and practices of public administration are ever changing and it is essential that they be appraised from time to time Designed as a capstone survey of the field The State of Public Administration focuses on leading edge issues challenges and opportunities that confront PA study and practice in the 21st Century

International Negotiation Evangelos Raftopoulos,2019-01-03 Evangelos Raftopoulos explores international negotiation as a structured process of relational governance that generates international common interest between and among international participants and in relation to the international public order He challenges prescriptive models of negotiation developed in international relations and positivistic approaches to international law which artificially separate treaties from negotiation in the name of objectivity and opens a window for looking at international negotiations from a novel international law perspective Using an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates law philosophy politics and linguistics he proposes a holistic theoretical model of multilateral international negotiation that not only offers a subjective view of international law in practice but also demonstrates the importance of understanding the horizontal normativity of international ordering This work should be read by academics and practitioners of international law and negotiations officials of international organizations and anyone else interested in international law and international relations

Current Debates in Public Finance Public Administration & Environmental Studies Murat Aydın,Nihal Şirin Pınarcıoğlu,Örgen Uğurlı ,2018

The Constitution of the Environmental Emergency Jocelyn Stacey,2018-04-19 This book argues for a reframing of environmental law It starts from the premise that all environmental issues confront lawmakers as emergencies Environmental issues pose a fundamental challenge to law because it is impossible to reliably predict which issues contain the possibility of an emergency and what to do in response to such an unforeseen event These features undermine the conventional understanding of the rule of law This book argues that approaching environmental issues from the emergency perspective leads us to an understanding of the rule of law that requires public justification This requirement recentres the debates in environmental law around the question of why governance under the rule of law is something worth having in the environmental context It elaborates what the rule of law requires of decision makers in light of our ever present vulnerability to catastrophic environmental harm Controversial compelling and above all timely this book presents an important new perspective on environmental law

Ethics, Equity, and Regulation Cheryl R. Lehman, 2010-05-18 How can we account for continuing inequalities in an era promoting enlightened social and economic connections What mechanisms of perceptions and politics will enable policy makers and scholars to advance significant progressive change This title examines accounting's contribution to these challenges given the profession's multifaceted roles Municipal Accounting: Concepts And Practical Issues Udaybhanu

Bhattacharyya, 2005 With reference to West Bengal India Citizens, Politicians, and Providers Ariel Fiszbein, 2005-01-01 This document aims to provide guidance to policymakers and development practitioners on how to shape public action to get better quality services for all in Latin America Latin American countries have seen significant progress in the last 20 years in the coverage of social and infrastructure services However coverage gaps and poor quality of services remain a serious problem for many citizens particularly the poor While technical difficulties may still be a constraint for some sophisticated services they are clearly not a difficulty for the most essential ones Understanding questions of access and quality of services is about the behaviors of people from teachers to administrators politicians and rich and poor citizens The main concern is whether those responsible for designing and delivering services are accountable to the citizens who are demanding the services and also paying the taxes and fees that finance these services

The Top Books of the Year The Accountability Connection The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Accountability Connection : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. The Accountability Connection : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
