Soba Archaeological Research At A Medieval Capital On The Blue Nile Stair Society:

Soba Derek A. Welsby, Charles M. Daniels, 1991 Soba was the rich and prosperous capital of the Medieval Kingdom of Alwa in Central Sudan Situated on the Blue Nile some 20 km above Khartoum its remains today are no more than a heap of mounds This report records the results of survey and excavation between 1981 and 1986 and provides detailed description of the buildings located as well as sections by specialists on the pottery small finds textiles glass inscriptions and botanical remains

Soba II Derek A. Welsby, 1998 The Christian kingdom of Alwa in medieval Nubia dominated the region around the confluence of the White and Blue Niles for at least 700 years The most southerly of the three Nile Basin Nubian kingdoms Alwa has shown much of the cultural sophistication of its time The British Institute in Eastern Africa conducted its second campaign of excavations in the capital city Soba East The project produced details of artefacts both imported and locally made and threw further light on buildings of the era The campaign focused on a number of widely spaced areas around the periphery including a rescue excavation of a vaulted tomb containing multiple burials Of special interest are the reports on human remains and animal bone these represent the first studies of large assemblages of this date from Central Sudan This volume contributes greatly to our knowledge of the inhabitants material culture and our understanding of Soba as a major religious and commercial centre
