The Destiny Of Isabelle Eberhardt:

The Destiny of Isabelle Eberhardt Cecily Mackworth, 1977-01-01 Isabelle Eberhardt and North Africa Lynda Chouiten, 2014-11-12 As a woman who traversed the North African Orient in male costume who spoke Arabic as well as French and who professed Islam while transgressing many of its instructions Isabelle Eberhardt seems to fit within Mikhail Bakhtin's definition of the carnivalesque as the impulse to blend that which is usually kept separate by artificial boundaries and hierarchies Nevertheless this study demonstrates that her evolution in the Maghreb is carnivalesque only in appearance Despite her transvestism the writer left unquestioned the traditional definitions of masculinity and femininity it is her subscription to the patriarchal equation of maleness with power and womanhood with weakness which makes her borrow a masculine identity In a similar way her appropriation of several elements of Oriental culture does not prevent her from reproducing age old Orientalist stereotypes As portrayed in her texts the natives are either aestheticized as picturesque figures from a bygone age or denigrated as uncivilized dark minded creatures And because Orientalism as Edward Said has famously argued is but a textual manifestation of colonialism Eberhardt's Orientalist texts make her the accomplice of the colonialist project a project which she also served by acting as a mediator between General Lyautey and native tribes In discussing Eberhardt's involvement in the colonial mission and her perpetuation of the patriarchal and Orientalist traditions this study questions the image of rebel figure that is usually assigned to her Instead it shows the writer's literary and political gestures to be embedded in a marked quest for empowerment through the double literary and political conquest of the Feminism and Documentary Diane Waldman, Janet Walker, 1999 Documentary and feminist film studies have Orient long been separate or parallel universes that need to converse or collide The essays in this volume written by prominent scholars and filmmakers demonstrate the challenges that feminist perspectives pose for documentary theory history and practice They also show how fuller attention to documentary enriches and complicates feminist theory especially regarding the relationship between gender and sexuality race and ethnicity class and nation Feminism and Documentary begins with a substantial historical introduction that highlights several of the specific areas that contributors address debates over realism the relationship between filmmaker and subject historical thinking about documentary and thinking about the historical documentary biography and autobiography and the use of psychoanalysis Other essays most of which appear here for the first time range from broad overviews to close analyses of particular films and videos and from discussions of well known works such as Roger and Me and Don t Look Back to lesser known texts that might revise the canon The collection includes an extensive filmography and videography with useful distribution information and a bibliography of work in this neglected area of scholarship Lucid sophisticated and eye opening this book will galvanize documentary studies and demonstrate the Writings from the Sand, Volume 2 need for women s and cultural studies to grapple with visual media what cu Isabelle Eberhardt, 2012-01-01 Collects the author's works offering a view of the culture and people of French Algeria rarely seen by outsiders The Production of the Muslim Woman Lamia Ben Youssef Zayzafoon, 2005-01-01 In this fascinating and important study Lamia Ben Youssef Zayzafoon examines how the Muslim woman was produced as a fixed category to serve various ideological and political ends The Production of the Muslim Woman enriches the debate in Islamic and gender studies arguing that the traditional perception of a division between spiritual Islam and a misogynist Arab culture is a recent construct derived from the rhetoric of cultural liberalism in the West In addition to incorporating the discourses of Maghrebian feminism female orientalism French psychoanalytic feminism and North African nationalism this book introduces to an Anglophone audience archival material culled from extensive research in Tunisian collections The insights offered by this book will be invaluable to students of postcolonial thought and theory gender studies Maghrebian literature and history and Middle Eastern studies Writings from the Sand, Volume 1 Isabelle Eberhardt, 2012-05-01 Collects the author s works offering a view of the culture and people of French Algeria rarely seen by outsiders Western Women and Imperialism Nupur Chaudhuri, Margaret Strobel, 1992-05-22 Western Women and Imperialism provides fascinating insights into interactions and attitudes between western and non western women mainly in the 19th and early 20th centuries It is an important contribution to the field of women's studies and primarily British imperial history in that many of the essays explore problems of cross cultural interaction that have been heretofore ignored Nancy Fix Anderson A challenging anthology in which a multiplicity of authors sheds new light on the waves of missionaries memsahibs nurses and feminists Ms a long overdue engagement with colonial discourse and feminism excellent essays The Year's Work in Critical Cultural Theory The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history. The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated womens daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an AZ format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune womens and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to

Clancy-Smith, 2023-04-28 Julia Clancy Smith's unprecedented study brings us a remarkable view of North African history from the perspective of the North Africans themselves Focusing on the religious beliefs and political actions of Muslim elites and their followers in Algeria and Tunisia she provides a richly detailed analysis of resistance and accommodation to colonial rule Clancy Smith demonstrates the continuities between the eras of Turkish and French rule as well as the importance of regional ties among elite families in defining Saharan political cultures She rejects the position that Algerians and Tunisians were invariably victims of western colonial aggression arguing instead that Muslim notables understood the outside world and were quite capable of manipulating the massive changes occurring around them This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994 Julia Clancy Smith s unprecedented study brings us a remarkable view of North African history from the perspective of the North Africans themselves Focusing on the religious beliefs and political actions of Muslim elites and their followers in Algeria an art during the period of high modernism Roger Benjamin drawing on a decade of research in untapped archives introduces many unfamiliar paintings posters miniatures and panoramas and discovers an art movement closely bound to French colonial expansion Orientalist Aesthetics approaches the visual culture of exoticism by ranging across the decorative arts colonial museums traveling scholarships and art criticism in the Salons of Paris and Algiers Benjamin's rediscovery of the important Society of French Orientalist Painters provides a critical context for understanding a lush body of work including that of indigenous Algerian artists never before discussed in English The painter critic Eug ne Fromentin tackled the unfamiliar atmospheric conditions of the desert Etienne Dinet sought a more truthful mode of ethnographic painting by converting to Islam and Mohammed Racim melded the Persian miniature with Western perspective Benjamin considers armchair Orientalists concocting dreams from studio bric brac naturalists who spent years living in the oases of the Sahara and Fauve and Cubist travelers who transposed the discoveries of the Parisian Salons to create decors of indigenous figures and tropical plants The network that linked these artists with writers and museum curators was influenced by a complex web of tourism rapid travel across the Mediterranean and the march of modernity into a colonized culture Orientalist Aesthetics shows how colonial policy affected aesthetics how Europeans visualized cultural difference and how indigenous artists in turn manipulated Western visual languages The Encyclopedia of Amazons Jessica Amanda Salmonson, 2015-04-07 An excellent A to Z reference of female fighters in history myth and literature from goddesses to gladiators to guerrilla warriors Library Journal This is an astounding collection of female fighters from heads of state and goddesses to pirates and gladiators Each entry is drawn from historical fictional or mythical narratives of many eras and lands With over one thousand entries detailing the lives and influence of these heroic female figures in battle politics and daily life Salmonson provides a unique chronicle of female fortitude focusing not just on physical strength but on the courage to fight against patriarchal structures and redefine women s roles during time periods when doing so was nearly impossible The use of historical information and fictional traditions from Japan Europe Asia and Africa gives this work a cross cultural perspective that contextualizes the image of these unconventional depictions of might valor and greatness Empire Islands Rebecca Weaver-Hightower, 2007 Through a detailed unpacking of the castaway genre's appeal in English literature Empire Islands forwards our understanding of the sociopsychology of British Empire Rebecca Weaver Hightower argues convincingly that by helping generations of readers to make sense of and perhaps feel better about imperial aggression the castaway story in effect enabled the expansion and maintenance of European empire Empire Islands asks why so many colonial authors chose islands as the setting for their stories of imperial adventure and why so many postcolonial writers write back to those island castaway narratives Drawing on insightful readings of works from Thomas More s Utopia to Caribbean novels like George Lamming's Water with Berries from canonical works such as Robinson Crusoe and The Tempest to the lesser known A Narrative of the Life and Astonishing Adventures of John Daniel by Ralph Morris Weaver Hightower examines themes of cannibalism piracy monstrosity imperial aggression and the concept of going native Ending with analysis of contemporary film and the role of the United States in global neoimperialism Weaver Hightower exposes how island narratives continue not only to describe but to justify colonialism Rebecca Weaver Hightower is assistant professor of English and postcolonial studies at the University of North Dakota Journeys to the Other Shore Roxanne L. Euben, 2008-07-01 The contemporary world is increasingly defined by dizzying flows of people and ideas But while Western travel is associated with a pioneering spirit of discovery the dominant image of Muslim mobility is the jihadi who travels not to learn but to destroy Journeys to the Other Shore challenges these stereotypes by charting the common ways in which Muslim and Western travelers negotiate the dislocation of travel to unfamiliar and strange worlds In Roxanne Euben's groundbreaking excursion across cultures geography history genre and genders travel signifies not only a physical movement across lands and cultures but also an imaginative journey in which wonder about those who live differently makes it possible to see the world differently In the book we meet not only Herodotus but also Ibn Battuta the fourteenth century Moroccan traveler Tocqueville's journeys are set against a five year sojourn in nineteenth century Paris by the Egyptian writer and translator Rifa a Rafi al Tahtawi and Montesquieu s novel Persian Letters meets with the memoir of an East African princess Sayyida Salme This extraordinary book shows that curiosity about the unknown the quest to understand foreign cultures critical distance from one s own world and the desire to remake the foreign into the familiar are not the monopoly of any single civilization or epoch Euben demonstrates that the fluidity of identities cultures and borders associated with our postcolonial globalized world has a long history one shaped not only by Western power but also by an Islamic ethos of travel in search of knowledge Different Skins Dúnlaith Bird, 2012-07-05 D nlaith Bird argues that vagabondage a physical and textual elaboration of gender identity in motion emerges as a totemic concept in European women s travel writing from 1850 For travellers including Olympe Audouard Isabella Bird Isabelle Eberhardt and Freya Stark vagabondage is a means of pushing out the physical geographical and textual parameters by which women are defined Travelling in Different Skins explores the negotiations of European women travel writers from 1850 1950 within the traditionally male oriented discourses of colonialism and Orientalism Moving from historical overview to close textual reading it traces a complex web of tacit collusion and gleeful defiance These women improvise access to the highly gendered imaginative geography of the Orient Tactics including cross dressing commerciality and the effacement of their male companions are used to carve out a space for their unconventional and often sexually hybrid constructions Using a composite theoretical basis of the later critical work of Judith Butler and Edward Said this comparative study of British and French colonial empires and gender norms draws out the nuances in these travellers constructions of gender identity Women travel writers are shown to play an important role in the legacy of sexual experimentation and self creation in the Orient traditionally associated with male writers including Gide and Pierre Loti and now ripe for critical re evaluation This study demonstrates how these women use lived experiences of restriction and negotiation to elaborate advanced theories of motion and gender construction presaging the concerns of twenty first century feminism and post colonialism

Orientalist Aesthetics Roger Benjamin,2003-02-03 Lavishly illustrated with exotic images ranging from Renoir s forgotten Algerian oeuvre to the abstract vision of Matisse s Morocco and beyond this book is the first history of Orientalist
