Sewall,1879 Diary of Samuel Sewall Samuel Sewall,1882 The Diary of Samuel Sewall, 1674-1729: 1709-1729 Samuel Sewall,1973 The Diary and Life of Samuel Sewall Melvin Yazawa,1998-03-15 Puritan judge Samuel Sewall witnessed or participated in many of the most important imperial episodes of late seventeenth and early eighteenth century Massachusetts These episodes punctuated his diary which he kept daily for 55 years to record the issues that concerned him most family church and town Five representative years from his diary 1685 1696 1706 1717 1726 are reprinted here in their entirety The Diary and Life of Samuel Sewall Melvin Yazawa,1998-03-15

Comprising daily commentary on major and minor events between 1674 and 1729 the diary of Boston merchant Samuel Sewall is one of the richest personal accounts of early American history This innovative abridgment allows events to unfold without the distraction of editorial manipulation by presenting one year s complete entries from each of the five decades The volume draws meaning from potentially mundane journal entries by placing Sewall s experiences in the dynamic context of colonial Boston A general introduction and thorough text annotations explain the social religious and political culture of Puritan New England while chapter introductions provide overviews of the diary s intervening years Illustrations a chronology questions for consideration a bibliography and an index are also included Samuel Sewall's Diary Samuel Sewall,1927 Samuel Sewall's Diary Samuel Sewall,Mark Van Doren,2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1927 edition Diary of Samuel Sewall, Vol. 2 Samuel Sewall,2015-07-28 Excerpt from Diary of Samuel Sewall Vol 2 1674 1729

The Publishing Committee herewith presents to the Society the second volume of the Diary of Samuel Sewall printed from the Manuscript in its Cabinet The text of the volume includes the period from January 14 1699 1700 to April 14 1714 Another volume in print will complete the publication of the manuscript Diary The Judge s letter book will furnish the materials for a fourth volume The Committee has continued the same system of annotating the text which was adopted in the first volume Resisting the prompting or opportunity to explain or illustrate the many interesting references which the Judge makes to matters of his torical importance to an extent which would expand the notes beyond the text the method pursued as the reader will observe has been restricted to occasional comments and to genealogical and local particulars and references without quoting authorities easily accessible to the students of our history The connection between Judge Sewall s family and that of Governor Dudley evidently embarrassed the former alike in his official position as a magistrate and in making entries in his diary concerning matters in which they were occasionally at variance That Sewall should also have drawn upon himself the hostility of Cotton Mather who with his father the President of the College was in violent feud with Dudley may help to show the perplexities of the Judge's position and course even when he seems to have tried to act as a moderator or an umpire. The Committee has therefore thought it advisable to reprint three very rare pamphlets which fully present matters of bitter strife in relation to the parties just named. Will make annotation upon it unnecessary. A few fragmentary and miscellaneous papers in Sewall's hand precede these Tracts. About the Publisher.
