The Craft Of Detection Fiction Topics And Types:

The Art of Detective Fiction NA NA,2016-04-30 In the hands of many of the great writers the unravelling of mystery is only one strand within a complex project Other things get unravelled too the belief in a rationally explicable world in the beneficent ordering force of culture and civilization Constantly the detective story delights in muddying the waters in acknowledging the omnipresent possibilities of anarchy and carnage As a genre it is supremely able to combine popular appeal with the ability to disturb provoke and challenge the reader The essays in this volume all pay tribute to and seek to account for the astonishing durability of the detective story as a narrative genre They range generously taking a variety of theoretical approaches and including detective fiction in languages other than English but particular attention is paid to the Golden Age of English detective story writing and to the hard boiled American version of the genre This is a collection that will appeal to the scholar and to the devotee alike to all those in fact who cannot resist the lure of finding out whodunit

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco,2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism The Art of Story

The Art of Identification Rex Ferguson, Melissa M. Littlefield, James Purdon, 2021-09-06 Since the mid nineteenth century there has been a notable acceleration in the development of the techniques used to confirm identity From fingerprints to photographs to DNA we have been rapidly amassing novel means of identification even as personal individual identity remains a complex chimera The Art of Identification examines how such processes are entangled within a wider sphere of cultural identity formation Against the backdrop of an unstable modernity and the rapid rise and expansion of identificatory techniques this volume makes the case that identity and identification are mutually imbricated and that our best understanding of both concepts and technologies comes through the interdisciplinary analysis of science bureaucratic infrastructures and cultural artifacts With contributions from literary critics cultural historians scholars of film and new media a forensic anthropologist and a human bioarcheologist this book reflects upon the relationship between the bureaucratic scientific and technologically determined techniques of identification and the cultural contexts of art literature and screen media In doing so it opens the interpretive possibilities surrounding identification and pushes us to think about it as existing within a range of cultural influences that complicate the precise formulation meaning and reception of the concept In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Dorothy Butchard Patricia E Chu Jonathan Finn Rebecca Gowland Liv Hausken Matt Houlbrook Rob Lederer Andrew Mangham Victoria Stewart and Tim Thompson
