The Creators The Shanji 3:

The Creators James C. Glass,2015-09-22 The Shanji Trilogy which began with Shanji and Empress of Light comes to its stunning conclusion with this tale of three generations of Creators Kati the light wielding genetic changeling who saved her planet and became its empress is now threatened with assassination Yesui Kati s daughter who came to control mass as well as light faces revolution and learns the uses of diplomacy And Bao and Shaan Yesui s twin daughters take the lineage to its limit Leaving their universe behind they spin forth a radiant new creation Claude Jutra Jim Leach,1999 Claude Jutra best known as the director of Mon oncle Antoine has been widely acclaimed as one of Canada s premier filmmakers Despite this there has been surprisingly little critical writing about his work and the context in which it was created and viewed Jutra was a Quebec nationalist and both he and his films were shaped by the changes in Quebec society during the Quiet Revolution and by the political tensions of the sixties and seventies Though he died in 1986 his films still have much to tell us about Canadian cinema and the ongoing debates on Canadian and Quebec nationhood Book jacket A History of the Jewish Community in Istanbul Minna Rozen,2010-10-15 This volume presents the transformation of the Greek speaking Jewish community of Byzantine Constantinople into an Ottoman ethnically diversified immigrant community As the Ottomans influenced its cultural and social values the community strived to preserve its boundaries with the surrounding society

Changing Identities of the Southeast Asian Chinese Since World War II Jennifer Cushman, Gungwu Wang, 1988-11-01 In June 1985 a symposium Changing Identities of the Southeast Asian Chinese since World War II was held at the Australian National University in Canberra This volume includes many of the papers from that symposium presented by ANU scholars and those from universities elsewhere in Australia North America and Southeast Asia Participants looked at the current thinking about the parameters of identity and shared their own research into the complex issues that overlapping categories of identity raise Identity was chosen as the focus of the symposium because perceptions of self whether by others or by the individual Chinese concerned appear to lie at the heart of the present day Chinese experience in Southeast Asia It is also evident that identity wears many guises and that we cannot talk about a single Chinese identity when identity can be determined by the different political social economic or religious circumstances an individual faces at any given time One of the distinctive characteristics of all the essays in this volume is that they are written from an historical perspective While the papers focus on how recent developments in Southeast Asian society have shaped Chinese identity they also discuss those changes in terms of the historical matrix from which they developed Because many of the essays in this volume combine an historical overview with more recent statistical data it should serve as a useful companion to the increasingly popular case studies in which much of the writing about the Chinese in Southeast Asia is now cast Medieval and Modern

Perspectives on Muslim-Jewish Relations Ronald L. Nettler, 2014-02-25 First Published in 1995 The life of Jews in medieval Baghdad or 18th century Tunis may now be considered to be important as Jewish life in 13th century Worms or 19th century Poland Islamic theological and exegetical writing on Judaism may now command as much interest as their counterparts in Christian literature while the rich Islamic Jewish cultural interchange over many centuries is clearly of great significance Studies in Muslim Jewish Relations will be a series of general volumes each including a wide range of subjects periodic edited volumes each focusing on a certain theme and a planned related monograph series which will publish authored volumes on more specialized aspects of the field This volume is a collection of twelve essays Violence and

Order on the Chengdu Plain Di Wang, 2018-03-27 In 1939 residents of a rural village near Chengdu watched as Lei Mingyuan a member of a violent secret society known as the Gowned Brothers executed his teenage daughter Six years later Shen Baoyuan a sociology student at Yenching University arrived in the town to conduct fieldwork on the society that once held sway over local matters She got to know Lei Mingyuan and his family recording many rare insights about the murder and the Gowned Brothers inner workings Using the filicide as a starting point to examine the history culture and organization of the Gowned Brothers Di Wang offers nuanced insights into the structures of local power in 1940s rural Sichuan Moreover he examines the influence of Western sociology and anthropology on the way intellectuals in the Republic of China perceived rural communities By studying the complex relationship between the Gowned Brothers and the Chinese Communist Party he offers a unique perspective on China's transition to socialism In so doing Wang persuasively connects a family in a rural community with little overt influence on national destiny to the movements and ideologies that helped shape contemporary China

Research in Scientific Feng Shui and the Built Environment Michael Y. MAK, Albert Ting-pat SO, 2009-02-01 Feng Shui is a body of ancient Chinese knowledge that aims at creating a harmony between environment buildings and people It represented the most significant set of architectural theory and practice in Chinese history Feng Shui knowledge reflected the traditional Chinese attitudes towards the natural and built environment With a desire to improve the relationship between human and the environment there is an increasing interest for architects building professionals and other property practitioners to apply the concepts of Feng Shui in building design As Feng Shui knowledge represents a holistic view in creating harmonized built environment research into the application of Feng Shui to the built environment needs to be

Blood and History in China John W. Dardess,2002-02-28 From 1625 to 1627 scholar officials belonging to a militant Confucianist group known as the Donglin Faction suffered one of the most gruesome political repressions in China s history Many were purged from key positions in the central government for their relentless push for a national moral rearmament under the Tianqi emperor While their martyrs deaths won them a lasting reputation for heroism and steadfastness their opponents are remembered for fatally degrading the quality of Ming political life with their arrests and tortures of Donglin partisans John Dardess employs a wide range of little used primary sources letters diaries eyewitness accounts memorials imperial edicts to provide a remarkably detailed narrative of the inner workings of Ming government and of this dramatic period as a whole Comparing the repression with the Tiananmen demonstrations of 1989 he argues that Tiananmen offers compelling clues to a rereading of the events of the 1620s Leaders of both movements were less interested in practical reform than in communicating sincere moral feelings to rulers and the public In the end the protesters succeeded in commemorating their dead and imprisoned and in disgracing those responsible for the violence A work of unprecedented depth skillfully told Blood and History in China will be appreciated by specialists in intellectual history and Ming and early Qing studies p
