The Curse Confronting The Last Taboo Menstruation:

The Curse Karen Houppert, 2000-05-24 A provocative look at the way our culture deals with menstruation The Curse examines the culture of concealment that surrounds menstruation and the devastating impact such secrecy has on women's physical and psychological health Karen Houppert combines reporting on the potential safety problems of sanitary products such as dioxin laced tampons with an analysis of the way ads movies young adult novels and women's magazines foster a menstrual etiquette that leaves women more likely to tell their male colleagues about an affair than brazenly carry an unopened tampon down the hall to the bathroom From the very beginning industry generated instructional films sketch out the parameters of acceptable behavior and teach young girls that bleeding is naughty irrepressible evidence of sexuality In the process confident girls learn to be self-conscious teens And the secrecy has even broader implications Houppert argues that industry ad campaigns have effectively stymied consumer debate research and safety monitoring of the sanitary protection industry By telling girls and women how to think and talk about menstruation the mostly male dominated media have set a tone that shapes women's experiences for them defining what they are allowed to feel about their periods their bodies and their sexuality

Menstruation Now What Does Blood Perform? Berkeley Kaite, 2019-04-01 Each of the eight chapters in this volume addresses menstruation and or menstrual blood in various media sites with a view to answering the question what does blood perform Menstrual blood may be enduringly feminine but it is never just one thing Menstruation Now contains chapters on the shifting conversation of menstruation in contemporary advertising menstrual blood and the female complaint in Alice Munro's short story Chance the signification of menstrual blood in legal discourse blood as a para-text in pornographic films the placement of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis's phantasized menstrual blood in biographies of her contemporary menstrual art menstrual blood as liminal space in Ingmar Bergman's film Cries and Whispers and unruly blood in the TV show Orange is the New Black Blood is performative disruptive noisy aesthetically fluid difficult to discipline It can thus now as always be performed again in the service of new meanings and experiences

Pushing our Understanding of Diversity in Organizations Eden B. King,Quinetta Roberson,Mikki R. Hebl,2020-02-01 Few time periods in the past five decades match the intensity of intergroup conflict that people around the world are currently experiencing Polarized attitudes around various sociopolitical issues such as gender equality and immigration have dominated the media and our lives Furthermore these powerful social dynamics have also impacted the places where we work and intensified existing strains on workers and workplaces To address these issues and improve organizational climates more theories research and collaborations to understand these phenomena are needed The volumes in this series will describe and instigate scholarship that advances our understanding of diversity in organizations This volume features renowned scholars who are unabashedly pushing the field by raising the questions that need to be asked by working on topics that have received far too little research attention and by holding researchers practitioners managers organizations and readers to task for doing what needs to be done to maximize social justice and egalitarian behaviors in the workplace The chapters provoke the status quo in society and in scholarship and in so doing push our understanding of diversity in organizations
