

The Dark Red Star

The Dark Red Star:

The Spectator, 1903 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Red Star Red Tara Zedar Thomey, 2010-04 Nine year old Trizong and his family suddenly find themselves in the heat of an uprising that has exploded around the ancient Tibetan capital city of Lhasa against the Chinese rulers The younger generation of Tibetans face an uphill battle as their parents and grandparents lose their land rights to an ever growing influx of Han population from the outerland The atmosphere of helplessness and sadness threatens to envelope Trizong He feels trapped But Trizong's old friend a feisty yogi master Trulzer Tulku appears in Trizong's dream to guide him As events unfold Trizong realizes that he and his people are not as helpless as he first thought Together with his elder brother Ogyan and their neighborhood friends the children resist the take over from the Chinese in a way that is at once non violent and culturally symbolical Trizong again feels the enchanted strength that once animated this ancient land Red Star Red Tara is a weaving together of author Zedar Thomey's emotions for the future of Tibet her spiritual practice in the Tibetan tradition and actual accounts she has heard from her Tibetan friends The Red Tara in this book is a true living Tibetan nun named Tsering Tsomo who inspired our author Zedar Thomey has created a charming colorful book that I am sure young children will find attractive The story takes place in Tibet which will make readers in other lands aware of the existence of our country and the challenges our people face with hope in their hearts His Holiness the Dalai Lama Red Star Alexander Bogdanov, 2018-11-01 An Earth man's journey to the planet Mars where he is treated to a wondrous vision of a communist future complete with flying cars and 3D color movies Wonders Marvels A communist society on Mars the Russian revolution and class struggle on two planets is the subject of this arresting science fiction novel by Alexander Bogdanov 1873 1928 one of the early organizers and prophets of the Russian Bolshevik party The red star is Mars but it is also the dream set to paper of the society that could emerge on earth after the dual victory of the socialist and scientific technical revolutions While portraying a harmonious and rational socialist society Bogdanov sketches out the problems that will face industrialized nations whether socialist or capitalist A surprisingly moving story The New Yorker The contemporary reader will marvel at Bogdanov's foresight nuclear fusion and propulsion atomic weaponry and fallout computers blood transfusions and almost unisexuality Choice Bogdanov's novels reveal a great deal about their fascinating author about his time and ironically ours and about the genre of utopia as well as his contribution to it Slavic Review Red Star Airacobra Evgeniy Mariinskiy, 2006 Evgeniy Mariinskiy a Soviet fighter ace and Hero of the Soviet Union shot down 20 enemy planes in aerial combat over the Eastern Front between 1943 and 1945 He frequently engaged enemy fighters and bombers shot down many but was himself shot down several times This is his extraordinary story His vivid inside view of the ruthless war in the air on the Eastern Front gives a rare insight into the reality of fighting and tactics of the Red Army Air Force In his own words and with a remarkable clarity of recall Evgeniy Mariinskiy describes what combat was like in the air face to face with a skilled deadly and increasingly desperate enemy The reader can follow his career from an unskilled novice who has just arrived at his regiment through to him becoming an ace and Hero of the Soviet Union under the leadership of experienced commanders The terrifying moments of action engagements with enemy fighters forced landings nervous strain before attacks loss of comrades and everyday life of pilots all these aspects of a Soviet fighter pilot's experience during the Great Patriotic War are brought dramatically to life in his memoirs In his memoirs Mariinskiy describes tactics which enabled him to have an upper hand in dogfights against experienced German pilots The grand strategy of the campaigns across the Eastern Front is less important here than the sequence of engagements that were the firsthand experience of the author It is this close up view of combat that makes Evgeniy Mariinskiy's reminiscences of such value Key sales points A gripping and superbly readable memoir of the war in the air over the Eastern Front 1943-45 penned by a Hero of the Soviet Union and air ace credited with 20 victories Covers the author's full aviation career including training and his initial experiences over the front as well as his increasingly successful combat with a skilled enemy Evgeniy Mariinskiy served with the 129th Guards Fighter Regiment 1943-45 undertaking 210 sorties participating in 60 air to air engagements and shooting down 20 enemy aircraft In 1945 he was awarded the Gold Star of Hero of the Soviet Union

Voicing the Soviet Experience Katharine Hodgson, 2003-11-06 The career of Olga Berggol'ts offers a case study in the complexities that faced Soviet writers in the Stalin era and demonstrates that the borders between official and unofficial literature were permeable and shifting This study draws on unpublished materials including the poet's notebooks and diaries to show how conflict and ambiguity functioned as a structuring principle in her work The tensions of attempting to reconcile Party loyalty with personal and artistic integrity are revealed in her lyric poetry her treatment of other genres including prose and in the intensively intra-textual nature of her writing Dr Hodgson reassesses the cultural heritage of an era that can seem remote and impenetrable but which is complex and intriguing
