The Day We Got Drunk on Cake William Trevor, 1967      The Day We Got Drunk on Cake and Other Stories William Trevor, 1967      Short Story Index, 1969      William Trevor (Routledge Revivals) Gregory A Schirmer, 2014-10-10

William Trevor is a master of contemporary fiction. He writes with equal authority about the frustrations of life in remote corners of Ireland and the hollowness of life in prosperous London suburbs. An Anglo-Irishman, Trevor is admired on both sides of the Atlantic and both sides of the Irish Sea. In William Trevor: A Study of His Fiction, first published in 1990, Gregory Schirmer analyses Trevor's novels such as A Standard of Behaviour and Fools of Fortune and short stories in detail. He argues that Trevor's writing is important both in terms of its mastery of fictional techniques and of the profoundly moral vision that informs it. His view of twentieth-century men and women is subtle and complex, generated by the tension between a humanistic faith in compassion and connection and an opposing, more realistic assessment of contemporary society as alienated and disconnected.

William Trevor Revaluations offers a comprehensive examination of the oeuvre of one of the most accomplished and celebrated practitioners writing in the English language: the author of fifteen novels, three novellas, and eleven volumes of short stories, as well as plays, radio and TV adaptations, and film screenplays. Drawing on the talents of a team of distinguished international scholars, this volume shines a critical light on Trevor's core concerns with individuality and the family and cultural and national identity, extending significantly the scope of current scholarship. Essays scrutinise the author's prolonged concern with domestic, communal, and national violence; his interrogation of patterns of inheritance and ideological heritage; and the impact of the past on choices his characters make. William Trevor Revaluations is a groundbreaking collection of essays and will also be seen as a definitive introduction to the work of a major contemporary novelist and short story writer.
