The Development Of Literate Mentalities In East Central Europe:

The Development of Literate Mentalities in East Central Europe Anna Adamska, Marco Mostert, 2004 Compared with most of Continental Europe North of the Alps the introduction of writing in East Central Europe Bohemia Poland and Hungary took place with a considerable delay Much is known about East Central European uses of writing although only a fragment of this knowledge is known outside the region Gathered by historians palaeographers and codicologists diplomatists art historians literary historians and others this knowledge has hardly ever been studied in the light of recent discussions on medieval literacy and communication Work done in the Czech Polish and Hungarian traditions of scholarship has never been subjected to a comparative analysis Furthermore the question of the relation between writing and other forms of communication in the region remains largely unexplored The volume serves a double purpose For the first time a collection of contributions on medieval literacy in East Central Europe is put before the forum of international scholarship It is also hoped to further discussions of modes of communication literate behaviour and mentalities among scholars working in the region

Continuity and Change in Medieval East Central Europe Dušan Zupka, 2024-12-19 Continuity and Change in Medieval East Central Europe explores the crucial societal political and cultural dynamics that defined medieval East Central Europe during the early and high Middle Ages Focusing on the historical regions of Bohemia Hungary Poland and Lithuania the book provides a comprehensive and comparative analysis of this transformative historical period It gathers the latest perspectives from leading experts offering nuanced insights into the interactions between power religion and social structures Featuring original chapters from an interdisciplinary team of contributors this volume delves into specific aspects of medieval East Central Europe It examines the dark ages around 900 AD the territorial organization of the Piast monarchies and the evolution of rulership in the Grand Duchy of Lithuania Other topics include the changing social status of royal servants in Hungary the role of church and state in societal changes and the unique concept of twin cathedrals in ecclesiastical architecture By providing comparative assessments the book highlights the complex relationship between continuity and change offering fresh perspectives on the political and cultural transformations that influenced the region s development Intended for historians and archaeologists interested in medieval societal changes this volume is also essential for students in history archaeology and art history By presenting cutting edge research from various language areas and historical schools the book makes advanced scholarship accessible to English speaking readers It serves the Anglophone academic market and engages experts and students within East Central Europe offering a critical resource for understanding the medieval period s enduring impact on contemporary societies

Medieval East Central Europe in a Comparative Perspective Gerhard Jaritz, Katalin Szende, 2016-05-12 Medieval East Central Europe in a Comparative Perspective draws together the new perspectives concerning the relevance of East Central Europe for current historiography by placing the region in various comparative contexts The chapters compare conditions within East Central Europe as well as between East

Central Europe the rest of the continent and beyond Including 15 original chapters from an interdisciplinary team of contributors this collection begins by posing the question What is East Central Europe with three specialists offering different interpretations and presenting new conclusions The book is then grouped into five parts which examine political practice religion urban experience and art and literature The contributors question and explain the reasons for similarities and differences in governance and strategies for handling allies enemies or subjects in particular ways They point out themes and structures from town planning to religious orders that did not function according to political boundaries and for which the inclusion of East Central European territories was systemic The volume offers a new interpretation of medieval East Central Europe beyond its traditional limits in space and time and beyond the established conceptual schemes It will be essential reading for students and scholars of medieval East Central Europe

Central Europe in the High Middle Ages Nora Berend, Przemysław Urbańczyk, Przemysław Wiszewski, 2013-12-19 A groundbreaking comparative history of the formation of Bohemia Hungary and Poland from their origins in the eleventh century

Parliamentarism in Northern and East-Central Europe in the Long Eighteenth Century István M. Szijártó, Wim Blockmans, László Kontler, 2022-09-30 This volume investigates the history of the representative assemblies of Sweden the riksdag Poland the sejm and Hungary the diaeta in the final period of the ancien régime It concentrates on the practices and ideas of parliamentarism and constitutionalism and examines the ideologies that motivated the members of these parliaments Attempts at the suppression as well as the restoration of the estates power in all these three countries are examined as well as in the case of Hungary the establishment of popular representation that eventually replaced the estates These three early modern representative assemblies have never before been explored systematically in a comparative framework

The Routledge Handbook of East Central and Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages, 500-1300 Florin Curta, 2021-11-29 The Routledge Handbook of East Central and Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages 500 1300 is the first of its kind to provide a point of reference for the history of the whole of Eastern Europe during the Middle Ages While historians have recognized the importance of integrating the eastern part of the European continent into surveys of the Middle Ages few have actually paid attention to the region its specific features problems of chronology and historiography This vast region represents more than two thirds of the European continent but its history in general and its medieval history in particular is poorly known This book covers the history of the whole region from the Balkans to the Carpathian Basin and the Bohemian Forest to the Finnish Bay It provides an overview of the current state of research and a route map for navigating an abundant historiography available in more than ten different languages Chapters cover topics as diverse as religion architecture art state formation migration law trade and the experiences of women and children This book is an essential reference for scholars and students of medieval history as well as those interested in the history of Central and Eastern Europe

'The Slippery Memory of Men' Paul Milliman, 2013-01-07 Paul Milliman's The Slippery Memory of Men is the first monograph on the role played by the early fourteenth century trials between Poland and the Teutonic Knights in the restoration of the Polish kingdom It is also only the second English language monograph on this important transitional period in Polish history and the first in over 40 years Milliman first analyzes the thirteenth century borderland society of the south Baltic littoral especially in Pomerania and then uses the lengthy testimonies of over 150 witnesses from the fourteenth century trials to examine the role of the memory of this borderland in informing the witnesses views of where the kingdom of Poland was as well as who should be included within its boundaries

A Companion to Medieval Miracle Collections, 2021-09-06 Miracle accounts provide a window into the views and conceptions of the laity the uneducated women and even children whose voices are mostly missing from other types of sources They are not however simple to use This volume offers a methodological insight into the medieval world of the miraculous Consisting of 15 cutting edge articles by leading scholars in the field it provides versatile approaches to the origins methods and recording techniques of various types of miracle narratives It offers fascinating case studies from across Europe which show how miracle accounts can be used as a source for various topics such as lived religion healing protection and family and gender Contributors are Nicole Archambeau Leigh Ann Craig Ildik Csepregi Jussi Hanska Emilia Jamroziak Sari Katajala Peltomaa Jenni Kuuliala Iona McCleery Jyrki Nissi Roberto Paciocco Donald S Prudlo Marika R s nen Jonas Van Mulder and Louise Elizabeth Wilson Methods and the Medievalist Jesse Keskiaho, Marko Lamberg, 2020-11-09 The field of medieval studies has shifted towards a growing degree of inter and multidisciplinary during the recent decades The concept of medieval studies covers in fact a multitude of disciplines some of them being loyal to their long established traditions whereas others are very new and borrow methods from other branches of the humanities or even from modern natural or social sciences Since this means not only new possibilities but also new challenges sources and methodology should obviously concern anyone engaged in the history and culture of the Middle Ages Regardless of what aspects of the medieval world a scholar is dealing with his or her study has much to gain from a source pluralistic approach in order to be able to understand and even combine different types of sources a scholar must be aware of what methods are relevant and available and how they can be adapted and applied This collection of essays presents a comprehensive overview of current and fresh approaches to the history of medieval Europe The topics include among other things the complex relationship between the spoken and the written word explorations in social and geographic space layers and mental images perceivable in medieval texts source edition techniques relics as visual and tangible items not to mention the possibilities offered by prosopography zooarchaeology and the natural sciences Also the question and significance of ethics an ever more important issue in present day academic circles is discussed The contributors to this volume themselves form a very inter and multidisciplinary team although they can all be labeled as medievalists they in fact they work within different disciplines and in several different research units in different countries Geographically several parts of Europe are covered in the essays not only the westernmost part of the continent but also the poorly known eastern and northern parts as well This diversity makes the collection worthwhile reading for students and scholars alike Lived Religion and the Long Reformation in Northern Europe c. 1300–1700 Raisa Maria Toivo, Sari Katajala-Peltomaa, 2016-09-27 Lived Religion and the Long Reformation in Northern Europe puts Reformation in a daily life context using lived religion as a conceptual and methodological tool exploring how people lived out their religion in their mundane toils and how religion created a performative space for them This collection reinvestigates the character of the Reformation in an area that later became the heartlands of Lutheranism The way people lived their religion was intricately linked with questions of the value of individual experience communal cohesion and interaction During the late Middle Ages and Early Modern Era religious certainty was replaced by the experience of doubt and hesitation Negotiations on and between various social levels manifest the needs aspirations and resistance behind the religious change Contributors include Kaarlo Arffman Jussi Hanska Miia Ij s Sari Katajala Peltomaa Jenni Kuuliala Marko Lamberg Jason Lavery Maija Ojala P i v i R i s n e n Schr der Raisa Maria Toivo Social Regulation: Case Studies from Tibetan History, 2016-09-27 In Social Regulation Case Studies from Tibetan History the editors Jeannine Bischoff and Saul Mullard present a collection of studies of the mechanisms that regulated Tibetan societies from the 17th to the 20th centuries Social regulations controlled shaped and perpetuated Tibetan societies but close analyses of these historical processes are rarely to be seen in event history writing The contributions to this volume explore the theme of social regulation from the perspectives of religion politics and administration while addressing issues of morals and values Covering a wide range of Tibetan societies the geographical scope of this volume extends from the Central Tibetan area to the southeastern Tibetan borderlands and the Himalayan kingdoms of Nepal and Sikkim Contributors are Alice Travers Berthe Jansen Charles Ramble Fernanda Pirie Jeannine Bischoff Kalsang Norbu Gurung Kensaku Okawa Nyima Drandul Peter Schwieger Saul Mullard Yuri Komatsubara Royal Divine Coronation Iconography in the Medieval Euro-Mediterranean Area Mirko Vagnoni, 2020-12-15 In the last decades historians and art historians have created an active historiographical debate about one of the most fascinating and studied iconographic themes of the Middle Ages the royal divine coronation Indeed in the specific case of some Ottonian and Salian illuminations it has been proposed that their function was not only political or to legitimize power as traditionally suggested Herrscherbilder but also liturgical and religious Memorialbilder This has led to a complete rethinking of the meaning of this iconographic theme the divine coronation of the king would not symbolically allude to his earthly power but to the wholly devotional hope of receiving the crown of eternal life in the afterlife If this academic debate has been concentrated above all on Ottonian and Salian royal images this Special Issue of Arts would like to deal with this topic by stimulating the analysis of royal divine coronation and blessing scenes in religious and liturgical context mosaics frescos or paintings placed in cathedrals or monastic churches and illuminations of liturgical texts with a wider geographical and temporal setting that is the European and Mediterranean kingdoms in the period from the 12th to the 15th centuries Middle-Class Writing in Late Medieval London Malcolm

Richardson,2015-10-06 Richardson explores how a powerful culture of writing was created in late medieval London even though initially few inhabitants could actually write themselves Whilst previous studies have tended to focus on middle class literary reading patterns this study examines writing skills separately both from reading skills and from literature “A Pearl of Powerful Learning”: The University of Cracow in the Fifteenth Century Paul Knoll,2016-08-09 Winner of The Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences of America s 2018 Oskar Halecki Award and Winner of the Early Slavic Studies Association 2016 Book Prize The first fully developed history of the University of Cracow in this period in over a century A Pearl of Powerful Learning The University of Cracow in the Fifteenth Century places the school in the context of late medieval universities traces the process of its foundation analyzes its institutional growth its setting in the Polish royal capital its role in national life and provides a social and geographical profile of students and faculty The book includes extended treatment of the content of intellectual life and accomplishments of the school with reference to the works of its most important scholars in the medieval arts curriculum medicine law and theology The emergence of early Renaissance humanist interests at the university is also discussed Winner of the Early Slavic Studies Association 2016 Book Prize for most outstanding recent scholarly monograph on pre modern Slavdom The work was described by the prize committee as A thoughtful highly informed and nuanced history of the University of Cracow an important institution in a pivotal period of Poland s history Knoll s treatment of such important issues as the role of the University in national life and the controversial and highly technical matter of the impact of Humanism are dealt with tactfully and thoughtfully The book will become the definitive work on this topic and will ensure that the material will rapidly be absorbed into general histories of education and of universities in the Renaissance Winner of The Polish Institute of Arts and Sciences of America s 2018 Oskar Halecki Award This award recognizes a book of particular value and significance dealing with the Polish experience and is named after the distinguished 20th century Polish medieval historian Oskar Halecki who was one of the founders of PIASA Professor Knoll will be recognized for this award during the 77th Annual Meeting of PIASA in Gdansk Poland in June 2019 The Life and Afterlife of St. Elizabeth of Hungary ,2010-12-20 This work is a study and translation of the testimony given by witnesses at the canonization hearings of St Elizabeth who died at age twenty four in 1231 The depositions offer vivid anecdotes about her life as well as the healing miracles that were associated with her shrine in Marburg Medieval and Early Modern for Central and Eastern Europe , Slave trading in the Early Middle Ages Janel M. Fontaine,2025-02-18 This book examines slave trading in northern and eastern central Europe from the seventh century through the eleventh century tracing its growth climax and decline Demand from the Islamic world in the ninth and tenth centuries prompted changes in warfare trade logistics and administrative responses to slavery in the slaving zones centred on the British Isles and the Czech lands This study establishes slave trading as a core driver of connectivity and presents a model for this practice in politically fragmented areas of Europe Cities, Texts and Social Networks, 400-1500 Caroline Goodson,Anne E. Lester,Carol

Symes, 2017-05-15 Cities Texts and Social Networks examines the experiences of urban life from late antiquity through the close of the fifteenth century in regions ranging from late Imperial Rome to Muslim Syria Iraq and al Andalus England the territories of medieval Francia Flanders the Low Countries Italy and Germany Together the volume's contributors move beyond attempts to define the city in purely legal economic or religious terms Instead they focus on modes of organisation representation and identity formation that shaped the ways urban spaces were called into being used and perceived Their interdisciplinary analyses place narrative and archival sources in communication with topography the built environment and evidence of sensory stimuli in order to capture sights sounds physical proximities and power structures Paying close attention to the delineation of public and private spaces and secular and sacred precincts each chapter explores the workings of power and urban discourse and their effects on the making of meaning The volume as a whole engages theoretical discussions of urban space its production consumption memory and meaning which too frequently misrepresent the evidence of the Middle Ages It argues that the construction and use of medieval urban spaces could foster the emergence of medieval public spheres that were fundamental components and by products of pre modern urban life The resulting collection contributes to longstanding debates among historians while tackling fundamental questions regarding medieval society and the ways it is understood today Many of these questions will resonate with scholars of postcolonial or non Western cultures whose sources and cities have been similarly marginalized in discussions of urban space and experience And because these essays reflect a considerable geographical temporal and methodological scope they model approaches to the study of urban history that will interest a wide range of readers

Medieval Silesia Sébastien Rossignol, 2025-03-28 This book presents an innovative retelling of the history of medieval Silesia by providing a truly inclusive narrative that considers a variety of perspectives Silesia the land on the Odra at the crossroads of the German lands Poland and Bohemia played a key role in the history of medieval Europe bridging various cultures The transformations of the thirteenth century which included the migration of German Francophone and Jewish settlers in new towns and villages and legal technological and environmental innovations had profound effects on language culture and the economy proximity to Bohemia forced a reaction to the Hussite movement in the fifteenth century This book combines a more familiar history with that of women and of other cultural and religious minority groups Francophones Jews religious dissenters who shared the territory of Silesia in the Middle Ages This study will be an ideal resource for students of medieval Europe or anyone seeking an introduction to medieval Silesia and its diversity of cultures

The Oxford Handbook of Latin Palaeography Frank T. Coulson, Robert Gary Babcock, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Latin Palaeography provides a comprehensive overview of the development of Latin script from Antiquity to the Renaissance codicology and the cultural setting of the medieval manuscript It will be an indispensable tool for all those interested in medieval book production
