The Dialectics Of Theism:

The Dialectics of Theism Patrick Lambert, 2005      The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular, 2014-05-28 The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular Studies on the Future of Religion contains the work of fifteen international scholars who have wrestled with the question of the relevancy meaning and future of religion within the context of the increasing antagonisms between the religious and secular realms of modern civil society and its globalization Through their chosen topics in analyzing these issues in the 20th and 21st centuries each author also indicates the possibility of mitigating if not preventing the continuation of this antagonism by historically moving toward a more reconciled and humane future global society Contributors are Branko An i Aleksandra Baranova Roland T Boer Francis Brassard Dustin Byrd Donald Devon III Neven Duvnjak Jan W R Fennema Denis R Janz Dinka Marinovi Jerolimov Gottfried K enzlen Mislav Kuko Michael R Ott Rudolf J Siebert and Ivica Sokol      Religion and Dialectics Anthony E. Mansueto, 2002 Religion and Dialectics carries to a new level the critical dialogue between religious belief dialectical thinking and socialist practice which has given birth among other things to the theology of liberation and to a new Marxist sociology of religion      Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M. Doran, S.J., 1990-06-01 In this challenging work Robert M Doran explores the basis of systematic theology in consciousness and goes on to consider the practical role of such theology in establishing and fostering communities with an authentic way of life This way of life would counteract the distortions and deformations of humanity that are exemplified by both late capitalism and Marxism Theology positions and interpretations today argues Doran must be stated in the categories of a theory of history The first part of the book outlines the horizon required for such categories The second third and fourth parts incrementally derive the categories expressing a theory of history in terms of the reciprocal relations among subjects cultures and social structures The final part on hermeneutics oresents an argument for the pertinence of what has preceded for interpreting the words and deeds of others Doran draws extensively on the thought of Bernard Lonergan and the work develops Lonergan s methodological insights It issues a call to persona genuineness and authenticity informed by religious moral intellectual affective and psychic conversions by interior differentiation of one s consciousness and by Christian faith on the parts of theologians who aspire to arrest effectively the course of cultural decline      The Dialectics of Creation Martin G. Poulson, 2014-03-13 This book investigates the philosophical components of Christian faith in creation by analyzing the distinction and the relation between creation and its Creator The writings of Edward Schillebeeckx and David Burrell supply a terminology of distinction and relation that shapes the discourse following in the footsteps of Aquinas Poulson elucidates the relational dialectic in the thought of Schillebeeckx as a way of thinking about the Creation and offers a helpful comparison with the thought of David Burrell Relational dialectic is an organizing principle not only of Schillebeeckx s account of creation but of his philosophical theology more generally It can operate as a hermeneutic for his material on praxis and humanism in a way that resolves some problems noted by other Schillebeeckx scholars Poulson s interpretation of Schillebeeckx enriches current approaches to this thinker and offers a significant contribution to thinking on the doctrine of Creation and issues surrounding the ontological distinction which is of major concern in philosophical theology today

Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland, 2013-10-24 The Swiss Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th century theological movement of Dialectical Theology In this monograph David Gilland offers an account of Bruner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation Law and Gospel He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid 1920s centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method Gilland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology The Mediator 1927 In light of the preceding analysis the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth Nature and Grace 1934 The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth

The Dialectic of the Holy Robert E. Meditz, 2016-09-12 This is the first published book length treatment on Paul Tillich and Judaism which is a neglected aspect of Tillich's thought It has three compelling features First pivotal biographical details show the importance of Judaism for Tillich and that he ardently opposed anti-Semitism before WWII and after the Holocaust Second Tillich's theological method is examined in key primary sources to show how he maintains continuity between Judaism and Christianity The primary source analysis includes his 1910 and 1912 dissertations on Schelling the 1933 The Socialist Decision the 1952 Berlin lectures on the Jewish Question and his final public lecture on the importance of the history of religion for systematic theology Particular attention is paid to his dialectical and theological history of religion Third Tillich's positive theology of Judaism contrasts sharply with the many complex negative ways in which Judaism is portrayed in Western thought This contributes significantly to our understanding the evolving history of Christian anti-Semitism

John Macquarrie, a Master of Theology Owen F. Cummings, 2002 This book represents a sympathetic but critical awareness of the theological awareness of John Macquarrie the premier Anglican theologian of our times

A Nondualistic Pentecostal Theology Spencer Moffatt, 2024-12-15 A Nondualistic Pentecostal Theology Exploring Dialectics and Becoming through Amos Yong and Slavoj Žižek invites readers to consider a dialectical theology for the third millennium grounded in nonduality and expressed from a pentecostal perspective Amos Yong has laid a valuable foundation for such an approach though his work stops short of fully achieving nondualism Despite highlighting diverse voices within pentecostal theology through Pentecost inspired themes systematic complexity and interdisciplinary input Yong still speaks of God in dualistic terms This work identifies missed opportunities to move beyond dualism and addresses them through a coherent nondualistic framework With the aid of Slavoj Žižek the pentecostal imagination reconfigures the essential themes of Yong's theology resulting in a fresh take on pentecostal theology committed to the richness of connection and the expansive potential of becoming      Bernard Shaw, Paul Ricoeur, and the Jesusian Dialectics of Redemptive Living Howard Ira Einsohn, 2023-12-27 This book explores a heretofore unremarked linkage between Bernard Shaw the twentieth century French thinker Paul Ricoeur and Jesus of Nazareth The ties that bind them are a foundational interest in the social teachings of the Nazarene and their use of a shared dialectics with respect to living the kind of compassionate life that holds out the promise in our contemporary world of achieving something approximating universal wellness on a healthy planet at peace with itself This work argues that the three principal subjects of the study independently of one another used the same dialectical method to reach the same dialectically derived conclusion about how humans can live redemptively in a fractured world      John Macquarrie's Natural Theology Georgina Morley, 2017-11-30 Title first published in 2003 John Macquarrie has been a major contributor in the theological world for more than forty years but as yet very little secondary material on his work has appeared This book offers an insightful introduction to Macquarrie's theology arguing that at its heart is a systematic theology of gift Tracing the development of his thought from its early existentialism to the social and world affirming perspectives of later writings this book shows how these developments emerge in dialogue with contemporary thinkers Morley demonstrates how Macquarrie's theology mediates between two traditionally opposing theologies of gift and being centring on the doctrines of God and of human being and reaching its fullest expression in Christology with Christ as the focal point of two personal movements of self giving divine and human Macquarrie himself contributes a Foreword      In Search of Deity John Macquarrie, 1984 The classical defence of and arguments for belief in God have not proved completely satisfactory particularly in the perspective of modern times and in the Gifford Lectures for 1983-4 given at the University of St Andrews Professor Macquarrie puts forward an alternative He calls his approach dialectical theism dialectical to indicate that he seeks to avoid the onesidedness of classical theism and theism as opposed to pantheism or panentheism to show that he is still concerned to arrive at a satisfying conception of God After indicating some of the weaknesses of classical theism and outlining other approaches which have been put forward Dr Macquarrie discusses a long series of thinkers who he argues represent an alternative tradition Plotinus Dionysius the Areopagite Johannes Scotus Eriugena Nicholas of Cusa Leibniz Hegel Whitehead and Heidegger In the last section of his book against this background he develops his dialectical concept of God re-examines the proofs for the existence of God and shows how dialectical theism has a bearing on spirituality ethics theology and world religions      Hegel's Undiscovered Thesis-Antithesis-Synthesis Dialectics Leonard F. Wheat, 2012-12-25 For over fifty years Hegel interpreters have rejected the former belief that Hegel used thesis antithesis synthesis dialectics In this incisive analysis of Hegel's philosophy Leonard F. Wheat shows that the modern interpretation is false Wheat rigorously demonstrates that there are in fact thirty eight well concealed dialectics in Hegel's two most important works twenty eight in Phenomenology of Spirit and ten in The Philosophy of History Wheat also develops other major new insights Hegel's chief dialectical format consists of a two concept thesis a two concept antithesis and a two concept synthesis that borrows one concept from the thesis and one from the antithesis All dialectics are analogically based on the Christian separation and return myth the dialectic separates from and returns to a thesis concept Hegel s enigmatic Spirit is a four faceted deliberately fictitious nonsupernatural entity that exists only as an atheistic redefinition of God Spirit s divine life begins not with consciousness but with unconsciousness in the prehuman state of nature before Spirit acquires its human mind Hegel s concept of freedom is not a sociopolitical concept but release from bondage to religious superstition belief in a supernatural God In Hegel s widely misinterpreted master and slave parable the master is God the slave is man and the slave s gaining his freedom is man s becoming an atheist The standard non Hegelian base superstructure interpretation of Marx s dialectics is false Marx s basic dialectic is actually this thesis communal ownership poverty antithesis private ownership wealth synthesis communal ownership wealth Wheat also shows that Marx and Tillich who subtly used Hegelian dialectics in their own works are the only authors who have understood Hegelian dialectics Thoroughly researched and exhaustive in detail this radical reinterpretation of Hegel s philosophy should greatly interest Hegel scholars and students

Theism in the Discourse of Jonathan Edwards R. C. De Prosopo,1985 This book proposes that a new semiotic category called theism can more intelligibly classify the discursive pattern that precedes modern humanism in American literature than such standard historicist categories as Puritanism or Calvinism or medievalism and that the writings of Jonathan Edwards exemplify this theist discursive pattern

Theology as Repetition Stephen Foster,2020-01-01 Theology as Repetition revisits and argues for a revival of John Macquarrie s philosophical theology Macquarrie was a key twentieth century theological voice and was considered a foremost interpreter and translator of Martin Heidegger s philosophy He then somehow fell from view Macquarrie developed a new style of theology grounded in a dialectical phenomenology that is a relevant voice in responding to recent trends in theology The development of the book is partly chronological and partly thematic and avoids attempting to be either deductive or inductive in argument but rather reflects Macquarrie s phenomenologically styled new theology Theology as Repetition is set out in two parts The first part situates Macquarrie in relation to thinkers from the radical theology of the 1960s through to the postmodernists of the late twentieth century The second part explores the intersection of key themes in Macquarrie s theology with the thinking of Kant Hegel Heidegger and representative postsecular and postmodern figures including but not limited to Emmanuel Levinas Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion

Religion, Theory, Critique Richard King,2017-07-18 Religion Theory Critique is an essential tool for learning about theory and method in the study of religion Leading experts engage with contemporary and classical theories as well as non Western cultural contexts Unlike other collections this anthology emphasizes the dynamic relationship

Modern Philosophy Guido De Ruggiero, 1921 Kierkegaard's Influence on Theology: Anglophone and Scandinavian Protestant theology Jon Bartley Stewart, Tome II is dedicated to tracing Kierkegaard's influence in Anglophone and Scandinavian Protestant religious thought In Britain before World War I the few literati who were familiar with his work tended to assimilate Kierkegaard to the heroic individualism of Ibsen and Nietzsche In the United States knowledge of Kierkegaard was introduced by Scandinavian immigrants who brought with them a picture of the Dane as much more sympathetic to traditional Christianity The interpretation of Kierkegaard in Britain and America during the early and mid twentieth century generally reflected the sensibilities of the particular theological interpreter Anglican theologians tended to find Kierkegaard to be one sided in his critique of reason and culture while theologians hailing from the Reformed tradition often saw him as an insightful harbinger of neo orthodoxy The second part of Tome II is dedicated to the Kierkegaard reception in Scandinavian theology featuring articles on Norwegian and Swedish theologians influenced by Kierkegaard

Mystical Theology and Continental Philosophy David Lewin, Simon D. Podmore, Duane Williams, 2017-05-18 Exploration of the interface between mystical theology and continental philosophy is a defining feature of the current intellectual and even devotional climate But to what extent and in what depth are these disciplines actually speaking to one another or even speaking about the same phenomena This book draws together original contributions by leading and emerging international scholars delineating emerging debates in this growing and dynamic field of research and spanning mystical and philosophical traditions from the ancient to the medieval modern and contemporary At the heart of which lies Meister Eckhart perhaps the single most influential Christian mystic for modern times The book is organised around significant historical and contemporary figures who speak across the intersections of philosophy and theology offering new insights into key interlocutors such as Pseudo Dionysius Augustine Isaac Luria Eckhart Hegel Heidegger Marion Kierkegaard Deleuze Laruelle and i ek Designed both to contribute to current trends in mystical theology and philosophy and elicit dialogue and debate from further afield this book speaks within an emerging space exploring the retrieval of the mystical within a post secular context
