The Dialogue Of Ipuwer And The Lord Of All:

The Dialogue of Ipuwer and the Lord of All Roland Enmarch, Griffith Institute, 2005 The poem known as The Dialogue of Ipuwer and the Lord of All is one of the most important works of Middle Egyptian literature ca 1950 1650 BC and is a crucial text for the understanding of Egyptian theology and royal ideology Yet because the poem's sole surviving manuscript is poorly preserved the text has had less impact on discussions than it should This book seeks to remedy this neglect and to provide a basis for further study by publishing the first new fully collated edition of the poem for almost a century The text is presented in hieroglyphic transcription accompanied by notes discussing uncertain or disputed readings A number of new readings are proposed The book includes a complete set of photographs of the manuscript enabling the user to verify readings The introduction gives a detailed discussion of the manuscript its provenance condition and dating together with a select bibliography of research on the poem Disputation Literature in the Near East and Beyond Enrique

Jiménez, Catherine Mittermayer, 2020-08-10 Disputation literature is a type of text in which usually two non human entities such as trees animals drinks or seasons try to establish their superiority over each other by means of a series of speeches written in an elaborate flowery register As opposed to other dialogue literature in disputation texts there is no serious matter at stake only the preeminence of one of the litigants over its rival These light hearted texts are known in virtually every culture that flourished in the Middle East from Antiquity to the present day and they constitute one of the most enduring genres in world literature The present volume collects over twenty contributions on disputation literature by a diverse group of world renowned scholars From ancient Sumer to modern day Bahrain from Egyptian to Neo Aramaic including Latin French Middle English Armenian Chinese and Japanese the chapters of this book study the multiple avatars of this venerable text type Manuscripts and Archives Alessandro Bausi, Christian Brockmann, Michael Friedrich, Sabine Kienitz, 2018-02-19

Archives are considered to be collections of administrative legal commercial and other records or the actual place where they are located They have become ubiquitous in the modern world but emerged not much later than the invention of writing Following Foucault who first used the word archive in a metaphorical sense as the general system of the formation and transformation of statements in his Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 postmodern theorists have tried to exploit the potential of this concept and initiated the archival turn In recent years however archives have attracted the attention of anthropologists and historians of different denominations regarding them as historical objects and grounding them again in real institutions The papers in this volume explore the complex topic of the archive in a historical systematic and comparative context and view it in the broader context of manuscript cultures by addressing questions like how by whom and for which purpose were archival records produced and if they differ from literary manuscripts regarding materials formats and producers scribes Music in Religious Cults of the Ancient Near East John Arthur Smith, 2020-11-09 Music in

The Pharaoh of the Exodus: Fairy tale or real history? Gerard Gertoux, 2017-01-23 For Egyptologists as well as archaeologists and even now Bible scholars the answer to the question Who was the pharaoh of the Exodus the answer is obvious there was none because the biblical story was a myth Dever 2003 233 Consequently who to believe Moses or Egyptologists Several scholars Finkelstein Dever and others posit that the Exodus narrative may have developed from collective memories of the Hyksos expulsions of Semitic Canaanites from Egypt possibly elaborated on to encourage resistance to the 7th century domination of Judah by Egypt For these scholars the liberation from Egypt after the 10 plagues as it is written in the Book of Exodus is quite different from the historical war of liberation against the Hyksos What are the Egyptian documents underlying this hypothesis none and what is the chronology of this mysterious war nobody knows Consequently who to believe Moses or Egyptologists This study will give the answer

Breathing Flesh Rune Nyord, 2009 The ancient Egyptian Coffin Texts form a corpus of ritual spells written on the inside of coffins from the Middle Kingdom c 2000 1650 BCE Thus accompanying the deceased in a very concrete sense the spells are part of a long Egyptian tradition of equipping the dead with ritual texts ensuring the transition from the state of a living human being to that of a deceased ancestor The texts present a view of death as entailing threats to the function of the body often conceptualized as bodily fragmentation or dysfunction In the transformation of the deceased the defense against these bodily dysfunctions is of paramount importance and the texts provide detailed accounts of the ritual empowerment of the body to achieve this goal Seen from this perspective the Coffin Texts provide a rich material for studying ancient Egyptian conceptions of the body by providing insights into the underlying structure of the body as a whole and the proper function of individual parts of the body as
