Strangers In Good Company:

The Becoming of Age Pamela H. Gravagne, 2013-04-26 The Becoming of Age is an examination of the ways that aging and old age are represented in popular film Arguing that the ideas behind cinematic depictions of aging are historical and open to revision the author looks at how movies both promote negative portrayals of aging and challenge its persistent cultural devaluation Movies are a site of struggle where the representation and the reality of aging intertwine and they have the power not only to reflect but to reconstruct our understanding Between the Sheets, in the Streets Chris Holmlund, Cynthia Fuchs, 1997 The Complete Idiot's Guide to Independent Filmmaking Josef Steiff, 2005-08-02 You ought to be making pictures Designed for people who want to tell a story their way The Complete Idiot's Guide to Independent Filmmaking explains everything a budding auteur needs to know from literary development and financial and organizational pre production to principal photography production post production assembly exhibition and distribution and more The advent of desktop editing and a wide range of consumer cameras enable the average person to create a film studio at home A great textbook for novice filmmakers whether film students or on their own auteurs The proliferation of film festivals around the world many of which encourage submissions from amateur filmmakers shows there are countless filmmakers who aren't learning the ropes in school Author has terrific credentials and has a feature length script in development in Hollywood
