Re-imagining the Research Process Mats Alvesson, Jorgen Sandberg, 2021-09-01 This book offers a unique solution to the shortage of more imaginative and engaging research by re-imagining the core elements of the research process In contrast to existing methods which mainly focus on standard ingredients in the research process the metaphorical approach taken here offers a more varied and comprehensive platform for producing novel influential and relevant research The set of guiding principles suggested in the book provides researchers with the resources to break away from existing conventions and templates for conducting and writing research Re-imagining the Research Process Conventional and Alternative Metaphors is suitable for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students and researchers interested in challenging traditional views of the research process Mats Alvesson holds a chair in the Business Administration department at Lund University in Sweden and is also a part time professor at University of Queensland Business School Australia and at Cass Business School UK Jorgen Sandberg is Professor at UQ Business School University of Queensland Australia and Distinguished Research Environment Professor in Organization Studies at the Warwick Business School UK

Blind Spot Salmaan Keshavjee, Paul Farmer, 2014-08-15 Neoliberalism has been the defining paradigm in global health since the latter part of the twentieth century What started as an untested and unproven theory that the creation of unfettered markets would give rise to political democracy led to policies that promoted the belief that private markets were the optimal agents for the distribution of social goods including health care A vivid illustration of the infiltration of neoliberal ideology into the design and implementation of development programs this case study set in post Soviet Tajikistan's remote eastern province of Badakhshan draws on extensive ethnographic and historical material to examine a revolving drug fund program used by numerous nongovernmental organizations globally to address shortages of high quality pharmaceuticals in poor communities Provocative rigorous and accessible Blind Spot offers a cautionary tale about the forces driving decision making in health and development policy today illustrating how the privatization of health care can have catastrophic outcomes for some of the world's most vulnerable populations
