An Introduction to the

Language

The original grammatical rules included can start to be used by children in situations which make language-learning fun. So many readers have asked for these cue cards, or "pages," that we have reprinted them in this supplement. You can use them in the ways suggested below, or make your own games that are good for memory of words, names, parts of the body, clothing and animals.

In these activities, the adult will sometimes be giving the instructions. If it is a good idea to make out a picture script in advance, it is already on the pages and in the Laminator. If you want to make up your own, you can make them on the pages, but they will not be laminated.

1. DATA AND CLIPPING The first set of questions includes a list of words of clipping that are used in the text. The words are: "clip", "clipped", and "clipping". The words are used in the text to describe the process of clipping and the resulting products.
