The Music Professor Online Judith Bowman, 2022. The Music Professor Online is a practical volume that provides a window into online music instruction in higher education. Author Judith Bowman highlights commonalities between online and face-to-face teaching, presents a theoretical framework for online learning and provides practical models and techniques based on interviews with professors teaching online in various music disciplines. This book offers keys for thinking about music education in a post-COVID world when the importance and interest of online education is of central concern. Part I reviews the growth and significance of online learning and online learning in music, identifies similarities and differences between face-to-face and online teaching and presents standards and principles for online instruction. It explores development of an online teaching persona, explains teaching presence and emphasizes the central role of the instructor as director of learning, always in relation to specific disciplines and their signature pedagogies. Part II focuses on the lived online curriculum featuring online teaching experiences in key fields by professors teaching them online. Bowman explores specific disciplines and their signature pedagogies together with practitioner profiles that provide insights into the thinking and techniques of excellent online music instructors together with recommendations for prospective online instructors and lessons drawn from the field. Part III summarizes recommendations and lessons from online practitioners, presents an action plan for moving forward with online music instruction and looks to the future of online instruction in music. Educators will find great use in this comprehensive, thoughtful compendium of reflections from a leading, longtime online music educator.

Signature Pedagogies for Professions in Arts and Design Rebecca Y. P. Kan, Christopher S. G. Khoo, 2025-03-14. This open access book surveys the dynamic landscape of professional arts and design education research, examining salient concepts and issues through the lens of signature pedagogies as an analytical framework. The arts and design professions covered in this book are music, dance, theatre, fashion, design, design and media, and fine art. Chapters in the book present a combination of reflective accounts, in-depth analyses and empirical research findings, shedding light on the education of students for productive and meaningful careers in the arts and design. They examine how concepts, issues, methods and practices relate to habits of the mind, hand and heart. Pedagogical insights on creative uncertainty, designerly formations, evocative ambiguity, generative apprenticeship, reflexivity, transition, truth and artistic tradition and heritage are explored with nuance and depth. The book constitutes a collective effort of artist educators at the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts, University of the Arts, Singapore, in documenting a shared institutional heritage which is continually rejuvenated through critical engagement with contemporary challenges. They examine the tensions embedded in the signature pedagogies and possible solutions to address them at the micro e.g. classroom or practicum meso e.g. program and macro e.g. institution levels In the process the book highlights research issues and directions for arts education researchers while also offering ideas that artist educators can explore and incorporate into their teaching

Exploring Signature Pedagogies Regan A. R. Gurung, Nancy L. Chick, Aeron Haynie, 2023-07-03 From the Foreword These authors have clearly shown the value in looking for the signature pedagogies of their disciplines Nothing uncovers hidden assumptions about desired knowledge skills and dispositions better than a careful examination of our most cherished practices The authors inspire specialists in other disciplines to do the same Furthermore they invite other colleagues to explore whether relatively new interdisciplinary fields such as Women s Studies and Global Studies have or should have a signature pedagogy consistent with their understanding of what it means to apprentice in these areas Anthony A Ciccone Senior Scholar and Director Carnegie Academy for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning How do individual disciplines foster deep learning and get students to think like disciplinary experts With contributions from the sciences humanities and the arts this book critically explores how to best foster student learning within and across the disciplines This book represents a major advance in the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning SoTL by moving beyond individual case studies best practices and the work of individual scholars to focus on the unique content and characteristic pedagogies of major disciplines Each chapter begins by summarizing the SoTL literature on the pedagogies of a specific discipline and by examining and analyzing its traditional practices paying particular attention to how faculty evaluate success Each concludes by articulating for its discipline the elements of a signature pedagogy that will improve teaching and learning and by offering an agenda for future research Each chapter explores what the pedagogical literature of the discipline suggests are the optimal ways to teach material in that field and to verify the resulting learning Each author is concerned about how to engage students in the ways of knowing the habits of mind and the values used by experts in his or her field Readers will not only benefit from the chapters most relevant to their disciplines As faculty members consider how their courses fit into the broader curriculum and relate to the other disciplines and design learning activities and goals not only within the discipline but also within the broader objectives of liberal education they will appreciate the cross disciplinary understandings this book affords
