 Academic Chairperson's Handbook* ,1990-01-01 Between 1990 and 2004 universities and colleges will compete fiercely for 335 000 new faculty members That is just one challenge looming for chairpersons whose domain has been transformed by changing departmental missions Until now the academic chair has received little guidance not only in dealing with new trends but in the daily running of a department The Academic Chairperson s Handbook is an important resource book for leaders who can make a positive difference This handbook draws on interviews with two hundred successful academic chairpersons from seventy campuses who discuss their solutions to typical problems that occur in bridging the relations between faculty administration students and the public The first of ifs two parts presents fifteen strategies for developing a department exercising leadership and reaching out to faculty The second part applies these strategies to the everyday business of improving teaching performance and promoting scholarship hiring and dealing with personnel conflicts Based on a national project supported by TIAA CREF The Academic Chairperson s Handbook will be indispensable to department heads at colleges and universities of all sizes throughout the United States The Complete Grants Sourcebook for Higher Education David G. Designing Teaching Improvement Programs ,1978 Behavior & Society ,1980 Assessing the Teaching of Writing Amy E. Dayton,2015-03-15 Although fraught with politics and other perils teacher evaluation can contribute in important positive ways to faculty development at both the individual and the departmental levels Yet the logistics of creating a valid assessment are complicated Inconsistent methods rater bias and overreliance on student evaluation forms have proven problematic The essays in Assessing the Teaching of Writing demonstrate constructive ways of evaluating teacher performance taking into consideration the immense number of variables involved Contributors to the volume examine a range of fundamental issues including the political context of declining state funds in education growing public critique of the professoriate and demands for accountability resulting from federal policy initiatives like No Child Left Behind the increasing sophistication of assessment methods and technologies and the continuing interest in the scholarship of teaching The first section addresses concerns and advances in assessment methodologies and the second takes a closer look at unique individual sites and models of assessment Chapters collectively argue for viewing teacher assessment as a rhetorical practice Fostering new ways of thinking about teacher evaluation Assessing the Teaching of Writing will be of great interest not only to writing program administrators but also to those concerned with faculty development and teacher assessment outside the writing program Research in Education ,1969 Developing a Comprehensive Faculty Evaluation System Raoul A. Arreola,2007 Based on thirty six years of research and experience building and operating large scale faculty evaluation systems and consulting to thousands of college and university personnel the author has established an eight step process for building a comprehensive evaluation system These steps include Determining the faculty role model Determining the faculty role model parameter values Determining roles in the faculty role model Determining role component weights Determining appropriate sources of information Determining the source impact weights Determining how information should be gathered and Completing the system by selecting or designing forms protocols and rating scales In this third edition each step including the definitions of the various roles to be evaluated has been expanded and enhanced based on the experiences of many institutions that have followed the procedure outlined in the book The third edition also features a new introduction fresh research in the field updated forms and procedures a new detailed case study of an institution that developed a Web enabled computer supported system based on the eight step process and a new body of work that defines the professoriate as a meta profession with a rubric for defining more than twenty faculty skill sets Readers will learn how to generate and use an overall composite rating in promotion tenure merit pay and post tenure review decisions they will also discover the issues in designing or finding using and cataloging student rating forms Sample forms worksheets models and sample faculty evaluation manuals round out this practical user friendly handbook for anyone developing a faculty evaluation system
