Teachers Touch Tomorrow Jane-Elyse Pryor, Todd Hafer, 2008-04 Millions of teachers shape the world one day one lesson and one student at a time Full of anecdotes inspiring words and captivating full colour photographs Teachers Touch Tomorrow is a beautiful keepsake to honour this noble profession A ribbon marker tucks between the pages so teachers can mark favourite words of appreciation and encouragement reminding them how much they mean to their students now and forever

Tomorrow is Better Dana E. Davis, 2008 Written in narrative form tells the Kingston Woman's History Club's story through the eyes of four generations of altruistic women who weathered war fire financial obstacles and even General Sherman's occupation In 1861 an unspoken vow to make tomorrow better than today catapulted a group of Kingston Georgia women to achieve several historical firsts They established the Confederacy's first hospital and held the South's first Confederate Memorial Day Today the group known as the Kingston Woman's History Club continues the Confederate Memorial Day ceremonies honoring both Union and Confederate dead Their ceremony is credited with being the longest running of its type in the United States Loyal to their mission of service the ladies have served soldiers in every American war since 1861 During peacetime they turned to community service and became the second chartered women's club in the state They named the state's flower and established the town's park that is home to the club's two building museum complex
