Plagiarism, the Internet, and Student Learning Wendy Sutherland-Smith,2008-04-24 Written for Higher Education educators managers and policy makers Plagiarism the Internet and Student Learning combines theoretical understandings with a practical model of plagiarism and aims to explain why and how plagiarism developed It offers a new way to conceptualize plagiarism and provides a framework for professionals dealing with plagiarism in higher education Sutherland Smith presents a model of plagiarism called the plagiarism continuum which usefully informs discussion and direction of plagiarism management in most educational settings The model was developed from a cross disciplinary examination of plagiarism with a particular focus on understanding how educators and students perceive and respond to issues of plagiarism The evolution of plagiarism from its birth in Law to a global issue poses challenges to international educators in diverse cultural settings The case studies included are the voices of educators and students discussing the complexity of plagiarism in policy and practice as well as the tensions between institutional and individual responses A review of international studies plus qualitative empirical research on plagiarism conducted in Australia between 2004 2006 explain why it has emerged as a major issue The book examines current teaching approaches in light of issues surrounding plagiarism particularly Internet plagiarism The model affords insight into ways in which teaching and learning approaches can be enhanced to cope with the ever changing face of plagiarism This book challenges Higher Education educators managers and policy makers to examine their own beliefs and practices in managing the phenomenon of plagiarism in academic writing

Beyond Stereotypes Liwei Liu,2023-07-14 This book investigates parental engagement in the transition to school in China and Australia which were taken as representatives of Eastern and Western cultures respectively A positive transition to school is important for children s learning and wellbeing and parents play a critical role in it The author therefore compares Chinese and Australian parents perceptions of and engagement in the transition to school and the factors influencing it By modifying the parental engagement scale and re constructing the bioecological model of parental engagement in transition to school in the contexts of China and Australia the book offers both instrumental and theoretical contributions in the field The author further argues that parents are facing challenges and tensions brought on by both global trends and local contexts which counters people s stereotypes of Chinese and Australian parents The book will be of interest to scholars and students studying parental engagement transition to school and international comparative studies Handbook of Research on Teaching Drew
