Harris, Mary Lee Morrison, 2012-12-13 Now in its third edition Peace Education provides a comprehensive approach to educating for a just and sustainable future It begins with religious and historical trends that have molded our understanding of peace and then presents a variety of ways to practice peace education in schools and communities and explains how it can motivate students The teaching and practice of peace education provides a basis of valuable knowledge about resolving conflicts and transforming violence without the use of force Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Spiritual and Political Dimensions of Nonviolence and Peace David Boersema, Katy Gray Brown, 2006 This book is a collection of philosophical papers that explores theoretical and practical aspects and implications of nonviolence as a means of establishing peace The papers range from spiritual and political dimensions of nonviolence to issues of justice and values and proposals for action and change Peace Education from the Grassroots Ian Harris, 2013-09-01 Historians often ignore the day to day struggles of ordinary people to improve their lives They tend to focus on the accomplishments of illustrious leaders Peace Education from the Grassroots tells the stories of concerned citizens teachers and grassroots peace activists who have struggled to counteract high levels of violence by teaching about the sources for violence and strategies for peace The stories told here come from the grass roots meaning the educators are close to the forms of violence they are addressing This collection of essays tells how citizens at the grassroots level developed peace education initiatives in thirteen different nations Belgium Canada El Salvador Germany India Jamaica Japan Mexico the Philippines South Korea Spain Uganda and the United States A fourteenth article describes the efforts of the International Red Cross to implement a human rights curriculum to teachers on the ground in the Balkans Iran Senegal and the United States These chapters describe a variety of schools colleges peace movement organizations community based organizations and international nongovernmental organizations engaged in peace education John A Collected Essays 2 John Scales Avery, 2016-02-06 This book contains a collection of essays and articles by John Scales Avery discussing the severe problems and challenges which the world faces during the 21st century Human civilization and the biosphere are threatened by catastrophic climate change Unless rapid steps are taken to replace fossil fuels by 100% renewable energy we risk passing a tipping point beyond which uncontrollable feedback loops could produce a 6th extinction event comparable to those observed in the geological record Another serious threat to human civilization and the biosphere is the danger of a catastrophic thermonuclear war Over a long period of time there is an ever increasing risk that such a war will occur by accident or miscalculation Thirdly there is threat of an extremely serious and widespread famine produced by the climate change rapidly growing populations and the end of the fossil fuel era We must urgently address all three challenges Student Transitions From Middle to High School J. consequences of our action and inaction both as individuals and collectivities 3 conservative political ethics whereby peace education may be interpreted as emphasizing the importance of the evolution of social institutions and the importance of ordered and lawful social change 4 aesthetic ethics whereby peace may be interpreted as something beautiful and valuable in itself and peace education as emphasizing the importance of that beauty and value and 5 the ethics of care whereby care may be interpreted as a core element in peace and peace education as encouraging trust and engagement with the other The study addresses major contributions to each of these ethical traditions the strengths and weaknesses of the tradition and the ways in which the tradition provides support for peace education It is argued in the thesis that each tradition provides only a partial basis for peace education and that ultimately a holistic and integrative understanding is required one that encourages a culture of peace an important addition to the emerging literature on peace education and the culture of peace From the Foreword by Koichiro Matsuura Director General of UNESCO
