Teaching Stories:

Sufi Teaching Stories Anab Whitehouse, 2018-11-06 Although told in a largely refashioned manner a number of the following stories are very loosely based upon either time honored stories of the mystics or are built around various essential spiritual insights drawn from their teachings Other stories appearing in this volume are wholly original but are still rooted in a traditional spiritual perspective In either case the names have been changed to protect the innocent and as well considerable poetic license has been taken in the telling and or re telling of some of these spiritual tales The author is neither a shaykh nor a guide but he did have the opportunity to serve and work closely with an adept of Islamic mysticism and as a result was exposed to a variety of principles values and teachings of the Sufi path The stories are being given expression in the present volume because they might have something of value to offer to anyone who cares to engage them and reflect on what is being said

Religion in Multicultural Education

Farideh Salili,Rumjahn Hoosain,2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education
