From Mandate to Achievement Elaine Makas,2009-09-14 This engaging book will guide your journey through the morass of curriculum alignment development and assessment Our school struggled through missteps in curriculum alignment and implementing common assessments without the benefit of Makas wisdom and experience I highly recommend this book for teachers administrators and interested parents Robert A Martin Leadership Consultant Oakland Schools Waterford MI Raise schoolwide performance with a systematic teacher driven approach to curriculum development Purposeful curriculum design is essential to attaining consistent academic improvement Educators often find however that a viable curriculum based on mandated standards can be exceedingly challenging to create implement and sustain In this book curriculum consultant Elaine Makas provides a step by step guide to establishing the processes and documents necessary to build a stable cohesive curriculum system that aligns to educational benchmarks Based on the DAILY model Data Alignment Instructional Pace Guides Local Common Assessment and Yearly Review this system deconstructs the curriculum process into sequential steps that facilitate the development of instructional priorities reveal students in need of intervention and help ensure continuous process improvement With numerous templates samples and reflective exercises this book clearly demonstrates how to Collect and analyze data identify expectations and recognize learning gaps Develop curriculum maps that align with standards and grade level subject goals Pace instruction throughout the year according to specific objectives Create assessments that predict standardized test performance Conduct yearly improvement reviews and documentation revisions An essential resource for all schools or districts whether struggling or successful From Mandate to Achievement enables K 12 principals district administrators curriculum facilitators and teacher teams to establish a consistent and accurate curriculum process that increases academic achievement and drives continuous school improvement Graduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn,1984 Teaching Writing in the Content Areas Vicki

Urquhart,Monette McIver,2005-05-15 Most educators intuitively understand the critical relationship between thinking and writing writing allows us to express what we think but the very act of writing spurs a process of exploration that changes our thinking and helps us learn Teaching Writing in the Content Areas examines nearly 30 years of research to identify how teachers can incorporate writing instruction that helps students master the course content and improve their overall achievement Building on the recommendations of the National Commission on Writing authors Vicki Urquhart and Monette McIver introduce four critical issues teachers should address when they include writing in their content courses Creating a positive environment for the feedback and guidance students need at various stages including prewriting drafting revising and editing Monitoring and assessing how much students are learning through their writing Choosing computer programs that best enhance the writing process Strengthening their knowledge of course content and their own writing skills The authors also provide 35 classroom strategies practices and handouts that teachers can easily implement in most subject areas or grade levels From prewriting guides and work sheets to instructional guidance and analysis the strategies offer realistic options to help teachers tailor writing assignments and instruction to the needs of each class Teaching Writing in the Content Areas is more than a primer for teaching the mechanics of writing it is a research based guide to regularly engaging students in writing that pushes them to express themselves clearly to explore new ideas and to become critical thinkers

Writing as a Learning Tool Päivi Tynjälä,L. Mason,K. Lonka,2012-12-06 In a brief summary the debate concerning the nature of writing processes is about whether the essential characteristic of expertise in writing is a matter of mastering problem solving strategies In this respect the role of social and interactive factors such as writers familiarity with the particular genre in which they are writing and their relationship with the discourse community in which they are participating have been pointed out e g Nystrand 1989 According to the socio interactive approach which refers to Vygotsky s theory the composition process is a dialogue between the writer and the reader made possible by socially shared knowledge The meaning of a text is a social construct that is negotiated between the reader and the writer through the medium of the
