Reflective Teaching in Further Adult and Vocational Education is a unique portable library of exceptional readings drawing together seminal extracts and contemporary literature from international sources from books and journals to support both initial study and extended career long professionalism for further adult and vocational education practitioners. Introductions to each reading highlight the key issues explored and explain the status of classic works. This book along with the core text and associated website draw upon the work of Andrew Pollard, former Director of the TLRP and the work of many years of accumulated understanding of generations of further adult and vocational professionals. Readings for Reflective Teaching in Further Adult and Vocational Education, the core text Reflective Teaching in Further Adult and Vocational Education and the website provide a fully integrated set of resources promoting the expertise of further adult and vocational professionals. The associated website www.reflectiveteaching.co.uk offers supplementary resources including reflective activities, research briefings and advice on further readings. It also features a glossary of educational terms, links to useful websites and showcases examples of excellent research and practice. This book forms part of the Reflective Teaching series edited by Andrew Pollard and Amy Pollard, offering support for reflective practice in early primary, secondary, further vocational, university and adult sectors of education. Service Learning as Pedagogy in Early Childhood Education Kelly L.

Heider, 2016-10-14. This book presents the most recent theory, research and practice on service learning as it relates to early childhood education. It describes several service learning programs, many of which were developed to better prepare pre-service teachers for the challenges they face in today's early childhood classrooms, including class size, ever-changing technology, diversity, high stakes testing, parental involvement or the lack thereof, and shrinking budgets. The book shares stories of positive outcomes from pre-service teachers who, having participated in service learning programs, report a shift in their attitudes and beliefs, including an increased empathy for others, a heightened sensitivity to student differences, more democratic values, and a greater commitment to teaching. In addition, the book examines the effects of service learning and positive outcomes for children and teacher educators as well. Schools today face an increasing number of language learners, the mainstreaming of special population students, and working with a standards-driven curriculum. All of these present new challenges for teachers as they attempt to meet their students' educational needs. As a result of this new classroom environment and the educational needs they present, teacher educators must now seek different approaches to prepare prospective teachers to meet these needs because the traditional approaches to teacher preparation, such as coursework independent of fieldwork, are no longer effective in equipping teachers to address these issues. This book examines in detail the new approach of service learning. Reflective Teaching in Primary Schools Andrew Pollard, Dominic Wyse, Ayshea Craig, Caroline Daly, Sinead Harmey, Louise Hayward, Steve Higgins, Amanda McCrory, Sarah Seleznyov, 2023-01-26. The book you can trust to guide you through your teaching career as the expert authors share tried and tested techniques in primary settings. Dominic Wyse with Andrew Pollard have worked with top practitioners from around the UK to create a text that is both cohesive and that continues to evolve to meet the needs of today's primary school teachers. This book uniquely provides two levels of support: practical evidence-based guidance on key classroom issues such as relationships, behaviour, curriculum planning, teaching strategies and assessment; evidence-informed principles and concepts to help you continue developing your skills. New to this edition: More case studies and research summaries based on teaching in the primary school than ever before. New reflective activities and guidance on key readings at the end of each chapter. Updates to reflect recent changes in curriculum and assessment across the UK. reflectiveteaching.co.uk provides a treasure trove of additional support. A

Handbook for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Heather Fry, Steve Ketteridge, Stephanie Marshall, 2008-12-19. First published in 2008. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company. Studying Education: An Introduction To The Key Disciplines In Education Studies Dufour, Barry, Curtis, Will, 2011-10-01. This book provides an authoritative state-of-the-art introduction to the key disciplines of education studies. It provides useful study activities and concise introductory notes on key texts, key figures, key centres and key journals in each discipline. A valuable and highly readable addition to the education studies literature. Clive Harber, Professor of International Education, University of Birmingham, UK. This book is a comprehensive student-friendly text introducing you to the main education disciplines in one handy volume. In a lively and accessible manner, it examines the academic disciplines that underpin our understanding of education and the contexts within which learning takes place. The book covers the seven main subject disciplines that contribute to education as a broad field of study: history of education, politics of education, philosophy of education, economics of education, sociology of education, psychology of education and comparative education. Key features include: Seven extended chapters, all written by specialist and experienced academics in their field. A brief overview and history at the beginning of each chapter, followed by a selection of key themes and topics within the discipline. Boxed summaries of key theorists and researchers throughout each chapter. Tasks for the reader, along with extensive referencing and suggestions for further reading and research. Studying Education is essential reading for students on Education Studies or PGCE courses, as well as all of those interested in or involved with education or schooling. Contributors: Rebecca Allen, Clyde Chitty, Will Curtis, Barry Dufour, Diahann Gallard, Angie S. Garden, Debbie Le Play, Richard Waller. Handbook of Latinos and Education Enrique G. Murillo, Jr., Dolores Delgado Bernal, Socorro Morales, Luis Urrieta, Jr., Eric Ruiz Bybee, Juan Sánchez Muñoz, Victor B. Saenz, Daniel Villanueva, Margarita Machado-Casas, Katherine Espinoza, 2021-07-29. Now in its second edition, this Handbook offers a comprehensive review of rigorous, innovative and critical scholarship profiling the scope and terrain of academic inquiry on Latinos and education. Presenting the most significant and potentially influential work in the field in terms of its contributions to research, to professional practice and to the emergence of related interdisciplinary studies and theory, the volume is now organized around four tighter key themes: history, theory and methodology; policies and politics; language and culture; teaching and learning. New chapters broaden the scope of theoretical lenses to include intersectionality as well as coverage of dual language education discussion around the Latinx and other recent updates to the field The Handbook of Latinos and Education is a must have resource for educational researchers graduate students teacher educators and the broad spectrum of individuals groups agencies organizations and institutions that share a common interest in and commitment to the educational issues that impact Latinos
