Language, Learning, and Disability in the Education of Young Bilingual Children Dina C. Castro, Alfredo J. Artiles, 2021-04-27. Using an interdisciplinary perspective to discuss the intersection of language development and learning processes, this book summarizes current knowledge and represents the most critical issues regarding early childhood research, policy and practice related to young bilingual children with disabilities. The book begins with a conceptual framework focusing on the intersection between the fields of early childhood education, bilingual education and special education. It goes on to review and discuss the role of bilingualism in young children's development and the experiences of young bilingual children with disabilities in early care and education settings, including issues of eligibility and access to care, instruction and assessment. The book explores family experiences, teacher preparation, accountability and policy, ending with recommendations for future research which will inform both policies and practices for the education of young bilingual children with disabilities. This timely volume provides valuable guidance for teachers, administrators, policymakers and researchers.

Researching Dyslexia in Multilingual Settings Deirdre Martin, 2013-09-27. This volume draws together current research on dyslexia and literacy in multilingual settings across disciplines and methodologies. The contributors, all internationally recognised in the field, address developmental and acquired literacy difficulties and dyslexia in a range of language contexts, including EAL/EFL. The book uses theories and analytical frameworks of a critical nature to reveal prejudicial social practices and suggests future research directions towards a critical re-consideration of current understandings of dyslexia in multilingual settings, with a view to foregrounding the potential for interdisciplinarity. The book also suggests ways forward for evidence-informed practice and it will be a valuable resource for researchers, practitioners and students alike.
